2. With reference to Board of Inspection Resolutions No. 44 of March 8, 1946 and No. 58 of April 26, 1946, the question of the fulfilment of the conditions of affiliation of the K. E. M. U. Jat College, Lakhaoti, could not be considered, as the report of the Inspectors had not been received.

In this connection it was resolved that Dr. P. Basu be also included in the panel of Inspectors appointed for this college.

3. With reference to Executive Council Resolution No. 309 dated April 27, 1946, granting affiliation to Gajra Raja Medical College, Gwalior, for the M. B., B. S. standard, the Board considered letter dated 29th May, 1946, from the Home Minister, Gwalior State, regarding the appointment of House-surgeons and lectures in Psychiatry as mentioned in the conditions of affiliation and also the opinion of the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine on the points raised by the Home Minis-

Resolved that (1) the college be required to appoint 25 House surgeons for the first two years after which the matter be again referred to the University.

(2) the lectures in Psychiatry may be delivered by the Superintendent, Mental Hospital, Gwalior.

4. With reference to Executive Council Resolution No. 256 (ii) of April 27, 1946 and Board of Inspection Resolution No. 54 of March 8, 1946, the Board considered letter dated April 22, 1946, from the Principal, D. A.-V. College in regard to the following remarks of the Annual Returns Scrutiny Committee:—

(iii) According to the time-table supplied by the D. A.-V. College, Cawnpore, there are 12 periods per day and evidently the teaching is done by shifts. It is not known when the college work begins and when it ends. An enquiry was made from the Principal in this connection, but inspite of two reminders, no reply has been received. The Board of Inspection and the Executive Council be requested to consider the advisability of laying down regulations to control the working hours in colleges.

Resolved that it be recorded.

5. Read letter No. 17/XXV—5 dated April 5, 1946, from the Principal, Meerut College, Meerut, in connection with the following remarks of the examiner in B. Sc. Botany (Practical) for 1945:—

6. With reference to Executive Council Resolution No. 310 (II) dated 27th April 1946, granting recognition to Meerut College for the M. Com. standard, the Board considered letter No. 621/XXV—14 of June 28/July 1, 1946, from the Principal, Meerut College, enclosing a copy of the time-table showing that the work of M. Com.

classes could be carried out with only one additional lecturer and requesting that the college be allowed to appoint only one additional lecturer (instead of two in 1946 and one in 1947).

It was reported that the Vice-Chancellor, pending the decision of the Board of Inspection and the Executive Council in this matter, had provisionally allowed the Principal to start classes with the addition of one lecturer only.

Resolved that it be recommended to the Executive Council that Meerut College be allowed to continue teaching of M. Com. class in 1946-47, with one additional lecturer only but that it be asked to report in April, 1947, about the proposed teaching arrangements for 1947-48, giving full details of the work of teachers and the number of students in each of the Commerce and Economics (Intermediate in Arts and Commerce, B. A., B. Com. and M. Com.) classes, and periods allotted to each subject.

7. With reference to Executive Council Resolution No. 162 of March 10, 1945, granting recognition to Dungar College Bikaner, in Chemistry, Physics, Zoology and Botany for the B. Sc. standard, the Board considered letter No. 280 DC dated July 19, 1946, from the Principal, Dungar College, Bikaner, submitting a time-table, showing that the appointment of one more lecturer in Chemistry and Physics was not necessary and requesting that the condition may be waived in this respect.

Resolved that it be recommended to the Executive Council that so long as the number of students in each class does not exceed 20, the present arrangement may be allowed to continue.

8. The Board considered the recommendations of the Board of Studies in Medicine (Resolution No. 6 of March 6, 1946) that (i) in the matter of making appointments to the teaching posts of the Agra Medical College, the conditions laid down in the note at the bottom of page 144 of the University Calendar, 1945-46, regarding the appointments of professors should be strictly adhered to; and (ii) in the appointment of readers and lecturers preference should be given to candidates possessing teaching experience.

NOTE.—The note referred to under recommendation No. (i) reads as follows :—

“NOTE.—In addition to the qualifications mentioned above the persons appointed to the posts of Professors must possess at least five years' experience of teaching the subject concerned.”

Resolved that the Board approves of the recommendations of the Board of Studies in Medicine and requests the Executive Council to ask the authorities of Agra Medical College to give effect to them.

9. The Board considered the changes in the staff of affiliated colleges along with the arrangements made and the qualifications of persons appointed as communicated to the University under Statute 4 of Chapter XVII of the Agra University Calendar.

It was reported that in certain cases enquiries were being made and if any irregularity was noticed, it would be reported to the Board at its next meeting.

Resolved that the changes be recorded.

In this connection the Board also considered letter No. nil dated 8th August, 1946, from the Principal, D. A.-V. College, Cawnpore, regarding the appointment of Mr. S. N. Varma as head of the departments of History and Politics.

Resolved that this arrangement be allowed for one year as a temporary measure after which a report should be called for.

10. With reference to Regulation 7 of Chapter XXII of the University Calendar for 1945-46, the Board appointed Rai Bahadur Dr. K. C. Mehta and Mr. C. Mahajan to inspect the following recognised hostels of the University :—

11. With reference to Executive Council Resolution No. 253 of April 27, 1946, refusing to recognise Sir Hukamchand Digamber Jain Boarding House, Indore, unless the whole building was entirely set apart for the residence of Intermediate and degree students, the Board considered (i) letter No. 570 dated July 14, 1946, from Sir Seth Sarupchand Hukamchand, requesting the University to reconsider its decision and grant recognition to the Hostel and (ii) letter No. 1/1/46 dated July 22, 1946, from the Principal, Indore Christian College, Indore, saying that he had received a letter from the hostel authorities, stating that they had decided to erect a new hostel building to house school boys and that the main hostel building would be reserved for college students of the two local degree colleges and of the Sanskrit College (located in the compound) which they proposed to get affiliated to the University when the Oriental Faculty was instituted in the University.

Resolved that the consideration of the matter be postponed for the present and the institution be inspected by University Inspectors, if they happen to go to Indore in some other connection.

12. The Board considered letter dated 8th August, 1946, from the Principal, D. A.-V. College, Cawnpore, informing that in response to public demand and in accordance with the general policy of the U. P. Government, the working committee of the college had sanctioned the introduction of the double shifts system in the college from July 25, 1946.

Resolved that if the existing statutes, regarding numbers in classes, length of periods and staff etc. have all been satisfied, the Board has no objection to the college building being utilised, for a longer period than usual; provided that separate staff and adequate arrangements for supervision have been made.

13. The Board considered the request of the authorities of the Birla Engineering College, Pilani, for the recognition of the qualifications of the persons appointed to the following posts in the college (vide letter dated

62. The Council considered (i) letter No. 446 dated August 17, 1946, from the Hony. Secretary, S. M. College, Chandausi, requesting permission for the appointment of a combined Head of Commerce and Economics Departments (instead of a separate professor for Commerce and Economics), and also for the appointment of an M. A. in Philosophy to the post of the Librarian, who would also teach Logic to inter-classes for 2 periods per day, and (ii) Board of Inspection Resolution No 16 of August 23, 1946 in this connection.

Resolved that as recommended by the Board of Inspection the request of the college be not granted.

J. C. CHATTERJEE, SHYAM SUNDAR SHARMA,
Vice-Chancellor. Registrar.

APPENDIX B

(Ref. Executive Council Res. No. 10 of Aug. 24, 1946).

Reports of the Tabulators for the Examinations of 1946.

I. The work was normal and there is nothing special to report.

L. P. MATHUR,
Tabulator.

II. In some of the papers in LL.B. (Final), there was a great deal of difference in the standards adopted by the Head Examiner and two co-examiners. In my opinion the Head Examiner is not a mere Post Office whose duty is to send the marks to the tabulator. He should see that the co-examiners under him conform to the standard adopted by him. Some suitable device should be adopted to bring about uniformity of standards, so that one section of students may not suffer.

The time allowed to some of the examiners is very long. The result is that the University results are unduly delayed. A mere scientific system of allowing time to individual examiners should be devised, so that the University may be able to publish its results soon.

The result charts should be more carefully printed, so as to avoid confusion between the same line on the foil and the counterfoil.

KALKA PRASAD BHATNAGAR,
Tabulator.

III. A number of examiners in M Sc. and B Sc (Agri.) Examinations sent their marks rather late with the result that I could not send the charts to the checker early, and the publication of the result was delayed. I suggest that such Examiners as delay the submission of marks by more than a week without the previous sanction of the Vice-Chancellor should be debarred from becoming examiners at least for two years.

The Allahabad and the Lucknow Universities publish their results much earlier and our students suffer as they cannot answer advertisements on account of late publication of results.

A large number of examiners of M.A. sent their marks in ordinary envelopes (not cloth lined) I can say from personal experience that it is some times difficult to get cloth lined registration envelopes from post offices. I would suggest that the Registrar should get envelopes made and send them to the examiners along with Roll lists etc. This I consider as very necessary. A provision should be made in instructions to examiners that any body who sends marks in ordinary envelopes or unregistered covers will be fined Rs 10 on the report of the tabulators. This condition should be printed in red ink.

One co-examiner in Law entered marks as 37½ or 40½. He repeated this at least 20 times and the Head Examiner, through whom the foils pass, did not care to correct the mistakes I have entered as 38 or 41.

L. C. TANDON,
Tabulator.

APPENDIX G.

(Ref Executive Council Res. No. 33 of Aug. 24, 1946).

Copy of Resolutions passed by the Inter-University Board, India, at its meeting held at Colombo on December 21 and 22, 1945 and office notes in regard to action to be taken on them and the suggestions of the Vice-Chancellor as to the action to be taken on these resolutions

Resolutions.

Vice-Chancellor's suggestions as to action to be taken on these resolutions.

(a) For action

I. To consider the opinion of the Universities on the proposal of the University of Dacca, for adoption by all the Indian Universities, of a uniform system of examination by two independent examiners in respect of M.A, M Sc, B A (Hons), B.Sc (Hons) and B.T. examinations to ensure reliability and objectivity of marking.

The Board recommends that a uniform system of examination by two independent examiners be followed in all Universities in respect of M.A, M Sc, B A (Hons), B.Sc. (Hons) and other examinations of similar standard.

II To consider whether some arrangement is not possible whereby the dates for the holding of the various examinations by different University all over India should be synchronised, so that it may be possible for the Federal Public Service Commission to fix intermediate dates for the examinations which may not clash with the dates fixed for the University examinations (Federal Public Service Commission).

The Board recommends that the Federal Public Service Commission examination be held in August, October, November and from January to the middle of February and that the Universities should, as far as practicable, avoid a clash with the dates of these examinations with their own examinations.

I. The Executive Council did not approve of this proposal and the Board was informed accordingly. (Vide Executive Council Resolution No 50 (XIV) of 21-8-45). The matter may, however, be considered again

II The main examinations of this University are held in April-May each year, and, therefore, no action is needed.

IV. To consider the opinion of the Universities on the proposal for a course of Urdu to be made compulsory for students taking up Hindi as a subject and in the same way a course of Hindi to be made compulsory for students taking up Urdu as a subject.

The Board considers it desirable that a candidate offering as Honours or Postgraduate course in Hindi or Urdu should have knowledge of the other language.

IV. The matter was referred to the Boards of Studies in Hindi and Urdu and they consider the proposal as impracticable.

Further for M.A. Examination in Hindi and Urdu candidates can offer, if they so desire, the other language for one of their papers. No further action seems to be necessary.

VI. To consider the propositions:—

- (a) "That steps should be taken by the Board to co-ordinate Education in School Final or Matriculation courses with that in the Collegiate courses starting with Inter classes in regard to the medium of instruction in non-language subjects and that provision should be permitted to be made in Muffusil places for imparting instructions in non-language subjects through the medium of English wherever there is adequate demand."

(ANDHRA UNIVERSITY).

- (b) "The question of adoption of vernacular as the medium for higher examinations."

(CALCUTTA UNIVERSITY).

- (c) To consider Item IV of the Eleventh meeting of the Central Advisory Board.

"The Inter-University Board be requested to suggest ways and means for attaining the goal of the adoption of modern Indian languages gradually and as far as possible alternatively with English as media of instruction for the Intermediate and Degree courses."

{ GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION }.

The Board is of opinion that the most practicable method of giving effect to Resolution No XIX of 1943 of the Inter-University Board would in the first instance be,—

VI. The University is already taking steps in this direction. No further action is necessary.

- (i) For the Central and Provincial Governments and States to subsidise the production of books of University standard in the different Indian languages;
- (ii) For the Universities to select certain areas and institutions where the medium of instruction should be an Indian language and where special grants should be made for the employment of qualified teachers and the upkeep of such colleges
- (iii) In the case of such languages as are common to more than one University there would be Inter-University and Inter-Governmental co-operation in the production of suitable text-books.

The Board is also of opinion that in order to encourage such institutions as employ the Indian languages as Media of instruction it would be desirable that, other things being equal, the alumni of these institutions should receive special preference in the matter of employment, particularly in the Education Department and such other Departments where proficiency in the Indian languages is likely to prove an added qualification.

VII. To consider the following propositions sent by the Annamalai University:—

- (1) The question of standardising the Sanskrit Honours Degree course and examination at all Universities
- (2) The question of standardising the M.Sc Degree examination at all the Universities. (In some Universities M.Sc. is just B Sc. Hons. Degree. In others it is a good research Degree)
- (3) That the Inter-University Board be requested to devise ways and means for permitting interchange of students between Universities by instituting scholarships, travelling fellowships, etc.

VII. (1) There is no Honours' Degree Course in this University.

1. The Board is of opinion that to all Universities an Honours Degree Course in all subjects should be a year longer in duration than the Pass Degree Course and that the Master's Degree be conferred after examination, a year after the Honours course or two years after the Pass Course.

The representative of the Calcutta University dissented.

2. The Board is of opinion that the M.Sc. degree should be a post-graduate qualification, determined as a result of an examination which may include research.

3. The Board has already expressed itself in favour of candidates for a doctor's degree being allowed to count certain periods spent by them in the interests of their research at other Universities or RESEARCH INSTITUTES, provided that a minimum period of residence and research is put in at their own Universities.

The Board should welcome the institution of Inter-University debates on lines similar to Inter-University Sports, and would encourage visits of University students to other Universities for short periods.

VIII. That it is desirable to encourage long term loans or exchanges of professors between the different Universities in India and the following conditions be considered :—

- (i) The loan or exchange shall be for a minimum period of one academic year and shall be arranged sufficiently in advance of the beginning of the academic year.
- (ii) The salary of each teacher shall be met by the institution to which he is permanently attached, but paid through his present employers and the amount shall be what he would have drawn had he continued in his own institution together with such allowances as may be paid to him.
- (iii) Loans of services shall be effected under such conditions as may be agreed upon between the parties concerned.

(2) This University is acting on these lines.

(3) Candidates for Doctors' degrees in this University are allowed to carry on their work in other recognised Universities and Research Institutes.

VIII. The information asked for by the Inter-University Board in this connection is being collected and will be supplied as soon as it is obtained.

The Inter-University Board is requested to invite offers from teachers of experience to serve in other Universities under the above conditions and to circulate the information.

The Inter-University Board, through its office, will be glad to collect from the different Universities a list of University teachers willing to visit other Universities as teachers for a specified period and would circulate this list to the Universities in India.

X To consider the following Resolutions passed at the 19th ALL INDIA EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE held in December 1943:—

- (6) "That an adequate amount should be earmarked in the annual budgets of the Universities for military and Aviation Courses and effective physical training."

X. (6) We are already acting on these lines.

No further action is necessary on this resolution.

- (7) "This conference requests the Government to make establishment of Child Guidance Clinics for research and for the study and treatment of delinquent and defective children an integral part of work in Training Colleges and in selected High Schools and Intermediate Colleges."

(7) This may be referred to the Board of Studies in Teachers' Training.

RESOLUTION OF THE INTER-UNIVERSITY BOARD ON THE ABOVE.

6. The Board is of opinion that financial provision for Physical Training be made by the Universities and that expenses necessary for Army, Navy and Air Training corps be provided for by the Government of India.

7. The Board is of opinion that this should form part of the course in a Teacher's Training College.

XIV To consider the following propositions forwarded by the Agra University:—

XIV We are already following this procedure.

- (1) "All Universities and Boards may be requested to grant provisional certificates for passing their examinations in order to enable students to join other universities for higher studies, without charging any fees for the certificates" (This is necessary as certificates and diplomas are given long after the examinations).

- (ii) The Board agrees that provisional certificates be issued pending the issue of formal certificate.

XVI. (a) To consider the desirability of introducing "Aerodynamics" as a subject of study in the Indian Universities.

(ALLAHABAD UNIVERSITY).

(b) Hydro-dynamics and Aerodynamics as subject of study.

(GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DEPARTMENT POSTS AND AIR.)

XVI. (a) and (b).—The Inter-University Board welcomes the introduction of AERODYNAMICS and HYDRO DYNAMICS as subjects of study in Indian Universities and recommends that adequate State grants be made to such Universities as to introduce these subjects.

1. The Committee has

A. "That in order to secure a reasonable degree of uniformity regarding the nomenclature used by different Universities for their higher degrees.

(i) "This title BA Hons or B Sc. Hons. be awarded only to those passing an examination after a three years' course after the Intermediate in Arts and Science Examination.

(ii) "These taking a two years' course after BA, or B.Sc., and passing an examination at the end of the course be awarded the M.A. or M.Sc. degree

(iii) "Any degree which involves further study after taking either the Honours or a Master's degree be designated M.A (Hons.) or M.Sc. (Hons.).

(iv) "Research degree be distinguished from those not involving research by some suitable device, e.g. M.Sc. (Hons Research) (this is necessary for the doctorate degrees which are awarded only for research work)."

(ANNAMALAI UNIVERSITY).

B. (i) "The name of the Law examinations should be the same all over India, preferably LL.B, instead of B.L.

XXXVII. To consider the following propositions sent by the Calcutta University.

2 "The equivalence of University Examinations."

3.

(2) The Inter-University Board recommends that the examinations passed by candidates after a regular course of studies in an affiliated institution be recognised and that the cases of those who appear as private candidates be considered on their merits.

Further resolved that the Secretary should collect information from the different Universities in regard to conditions under which private candidates are permitted to appear at various University examinations.

XXVIII To consider the question of granting educational concession to the members of the W. A. C. (1) and the A N S

(THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION).

APPENDIX A

THE AGRA UNIVERSITY (THIRD AMENDMENT) BILL, 1946,

Further to amend the Agra University Act, 1926

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Agra University Act 1926, for the purpose hereinafter appearing, it is hereby enacted as follows,— Preamble.

(1) This Act may be called the Agra University (Third Amendment) Act, 1946.

In sub-section (1) of Section 24 of the Agra University Act, substitute a full stop for the comma after the word "Lucknow" and delete the words "or within a radius of ten miles from the Convocation Hall of the Benares Hindu University or from the University Mosque of the Aligarh Muslim University"

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

There has been and still is a great demand in the cities of Benares and Aligarh for opening degree classes in institutions which take a large number of day scholars. The Benares Hindu University and the Aligarh Muslim University, which are residential Universities, have been unable to consider the claims of such institutions, as only colleges which form an integral part of the Universities can be organically connected with them. The same remarks apply in the case of the Allahabad and Lucknow Universities.

The position in the case of the Agra University is different. The Agra University Act (sub-section (1) of Section 24) however, imposes restrictions on the affiliation of colleges situated within a radius of ten miles from the Convocation Hall of the Benares Hindu University or from the University Mosque of the Aligarh Muslim University. If this restriction is removed it will be possible for such institutions to secure affiliation with the Agra University. It is accordingly proposed to delete the words "or within a radius of ten miles from the Convocation Hall of the Benares Hindu University or from the University Mosque of the Aligarh Muslim University" from the above section. There is no likelihood of the interest of the Benares Hindu University and the Aligarh Muslim University being affected adversely.

AUDIT NOTE.

OFFICE REPLIES.

8. Waste of funds in hiring furniture.—The University are paying a fair amount each month towards rent on account of the hire of almirahs and other furniture. In reply to the suggestion made in audit for the introduction of hire-purchase system, which will be considerably economical, it was stated that the almirahs had been hired temporarily solely for library books and as soon as the library building was built and equipped with iron almirahs, these wooden almirahs would be rendered useless. But nothing was said about the period that will be required for the completion of the building. Uncertain as the matter is, the Executive Council should seriously consider the advisability of the adoption of hire-purchase system which may eventually prove to be economical.

May be considered by the Library Committee.

9. Late Drawal of travelling allowance.—During the examination of the travelling allowance bills it was noticed that claims were very often preferred more than a year late vide for instance, voucher No 31 of July, 1945, in respect of the travelling allowance bill of Mr S. S. Joshi, Professor of Meeut College, for conducting the B Sc. examination at Jaipur on the 2nd to 4th March, 1944, submitted on June 24, 1945. Though all such payments were made under the sanction of the Vice-Chancellor after full compliance with rule 14 printed on page 508 of the Agra University Calendar of 1945-46, the practice should, as far as possible, be deprecated as effective check cannot always be exercised over the bills pertaining to such old claims. Only in exceptional circumstances such bills should be admitted if adequate reasons are adduced.

May be considered by the Council.

10. Avoidable excess drawal of travelling allowance.—Professor Rup Ram Gupta went from Agra to Bombay on the 26th July, 1945, to conduct the viva voce examination of a candidate, reaching there

The examiner could not be compelled to catch the first train after the examination was over during these days when travelling is most uncomfortable.

AUDIT NOTE.

OFFICE REPLIES.

on the 27th July The examination was held on the 28th. But he started back for Agra on the 29th July, at 6 p. m. and claimed 5 days daily allowance at Rs. 7-8-0 per diem, vide voucher No. 10 of August, 1945 The reason given by him for not starting on the 28th July in the evening was that he failed to get railway reservation back to Agra on that day. Grant of daily allowance has no connection whatever with reservation of railway accommodation; and such avoidable expenditure should in future be avoided.

11 A scrutiny of voucher No. 55 of February, 1946, showed that University forms and other printed materials of an aggregate value than Rs. 1,439-13-0 were purchased from the Bansal Press, Agra But no tenders or quotations were called for in order to get the benefit of competitive rates. Orders were directly placed with this firm, with a view to effect economy in expenditure, it should be advantageous for the University to call for tenders for such supplies and accept the lowest of them as far as possible.

12. Payee's receipt not forthcoming.—During the course of audit of payment vouchers a large number of payee's acknowledgments were not made available for audit. The objection statement mentions such cases. All these acknowledgments should be searched for and, where necessary, obtained from the actual payees and put up at the next audit.

13. Conclusion.—Subject to the above the accounts were very efficiently maintained by the Accountant and well supervised by the Registrar. The objection statement contains only 8 unsettled items.

The printing work entrusted to Bansal Press was all of urgent nature and it was given to them only when there was no time to get it done by the Newal Kishore Press. No other press in Agra was willing to do our work unless paper was supplied to them by the University, which was not possible. Therefore, there was no option but to get the work done by Bansal Press. Further it may be noted that this Press also had submitted a tender for annual University printing and in no case they were allowed more than their tendered rates.

Will be put up at next audit.

Calls for no remark.

Minutes of the second meeting of the Committee appointed (Under Executive Council Resolution No. 198 of March 9, 1946) to draft a scheme for the constitution of a Faculty of Oriental Learning, held at the Senate House, Agra, on Saturday, September 21, 1946, at 1 p. m.

Present:

Dr. Narayan Prasad Asthana (in the Chair).

2 Dr. P. Basu.

3. K. B. Syed Raza Husain

4 Syed Zamin Ali.

5. Dr. M. D. Shastri.

The Committee considered the scheme of Faculty of Oriental Learning as embodied in Appendix I, and another scheme for two separate Faculties of Oriental Learning, as embodied in Appendix II, together with the report of the sub-committee appointed under Resolution No. 2 of the Oriental Committee dated April 26, 1946.

Resolved that in the opinion of the committee it would be better if two separate Faculties of Oriental Learning viz. the Faculty of Oriental Learning in Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit and the Faculty of Oriental Learning in Arabic and Persian, are constituted in the University, and, therefore, the Committee recommends to the Council for adoption the scheme appearing in Appendix II to this report subject to the following modifications :—

- (1) That the scale of salaries recommended under the amendments to Chapter XVII, (which are the same as appearing in para 15 of this report of the committee dated April 26, 1946) be adopted for both the Faculties but the following note be added under the scale :—

NOTE.—In special cases the Executive Council may relax the conditions of grades and salaries.

- (2) That the scales of examination fees be as follows :—

	Rs.
Shastri or Alim Examination	10
Acharya or Fazil Examination	15
Vagisha or Dhanvantari or Muhaqqiq Examination	50
Supplementary Shastri or Alim Examination	10

- (3) That the opening paras of Statute 7 in Chapter XXXIII-F and Statute 6 in Chapter XXXIII-G should read as follows :—

Every candidate shall be examined in one of the following subjects :—

- (4) That the draft courses for the various examinations in the Oriental Faculty of Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit, be drawn up by the Boards of studies when they are appointed
 - (5) That the minimum pass marks in the various papers and subjects for the various examinations in the Oriental Faculty of Arabic and Persian be the same as for the corresponding examinations in the Oriental Faculty of Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit, but the regulations, relating to scheme of examinations as also the courses of study for examinations in the Oriental Faculty of Arabic and Persian be drawn up by the Boards of Studies when they are appointed
 - (6) That as there is no hurry the statutes, relating to 'Vagisha' and 'Dhanvantari' degrees in the Oriental Faculty of Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit, and Muhaqqiq degree in the Oriental Faculty of Arabic and Persian be left out for the present and they may go to the Executive Council through the Oriental Faculties. The draft statutes as appearing in the scheme may, however, be put to the Oriental Faculties in due course

Report of the first meeting of the Committee appointed by the Executive Council to draft a scheme for the constitution of a Faculty of Oriental Learning.

1 The first meeting of the Committee, appointed by the Executive Council (under its Resolution No 198 of March 9, 1946) to draft the constitution and the statutes and regulations, relating to the Faculty of Oriental Learning in the Agra University, was held at the Senate House, Agra, on Friday, April 26, 1946, at 1 p m. The following members were present —

- Lt-Col Dr J C Chatterjee, M A, D Litt M L A (Vice-Chancellor)
- 2 Dr Narayan Prasad Asthana, M A, LL D, C I E
- 3 Dr P. Basu, M A, Ph D, LL.D.
- 4 Mahamahopadhyaya Pandit Giridhar Sharma Chaturvedi.
- 5 Mahamahopadhyaya Pandit Chinna Swami Shastri
- 6 Syed Zamin Ali, M A.
- 7 Pandit Shyam Sundar Sharma, M.A, (Registrar)

2 The Committee felt that it would be better if instead of a joint Faculty of Oriental Learning, two separate Faculties were constituted in the University, viz an Oriental Faculty of Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit and another Oriental Faculty of Arabic and Persian, and resolved that two alternative schemes may be prepared for the consideration of the Executive Council when the report is finally drafted

3 The following sub committee, with powers to co-opt, was appointed to prepare the scheme on the side of Persian and Arabic and to submit a report by the end of June —

- 1 Dr. Narayan Prasad Asthana, (Chairman)
- 2 Syed Zamin Ali
- 3 Dr M Wahid Mirza, M A, Ph D, Head of the Department of Arabic and Islamic Culture, Lucknow University
- 4. Mr S A K Ghorri, M. A, B T., Inspector of Arabic Madras, as U P, Allahabad

4 The Committee decided that the draft scheme of the Faculty of Oriental Learning both on the side of (1) Sanskrit as well as (2) Arabic and Persian (as drafted by the Sub-Committee appointed under Resolution No 3 above) may be circulated at this stage to the states in Rajputana and Central India, which have expressed willingness to get their oriental colleges affiliated to the University and their opinions invited on the scheme. The Committee should then meet in August, 1946, to draft the final report in the light of the criticisms received from the states concerned

5 The Committee then proceeded to consider the draft scheme prepared by the Registrar for Sanskrit on the basis of a joint Faculty of (1) Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit and (2) Arabic and Persian.

6 The Committee feel that a large number of details of the scheme may have to be filled up or revised by the Faculty itself when it comes into existence, but an attempt should be made to complete the picture, even though tentatively, in all its essential respects, so that the scheme may be brought into operation immediately after the statutes are passed by the Senate in November, 1946 and assented to by His Excellency the Chancellor; and the University might be able to grant affiliation to Oriental Colleges from July, 1947. For this purpose, the Committee would suggest that even the tentative courses of study might be drawn up by the Committee now, as otherwise a whole year may have to be lost in getting these details fixed up by the Faculty and the other academic bodies, which meet only once a year in the Agra University.

7. The Committee are of opinion that for the constitution of a Faculty of Oriental Learning in the Agra University, no change in the Act would be needed and that the University has the power under Section 30 of the Agra University Act, 1926, to recognise a suitable examination as equivalent to the Intermediate Examination of the Board of High School and Intermediate Education of the United Provinces, for purposes of admission to the courses of study in the Faculty of Oriental Learning.

8. The Agra University has seven Faculties at present viz. the Faculties of Arts, Science, Law, Commerce, Agriculture, Medicine and Engineering and the Faculty of Oriental Learning will be the eighth Faculty in the University. Therefore the laws, relating to this new Faculty have to be drawn up in conformity with those relating to the other Faculties of the University and necessary amendments to the existing statutes and regulations have to be proposed here and there. Unfortunately these broken bits would not by themselves afford an intelligent reading in most places, but it will be in this form that the amendments to the laws will have to be proposed to the Executive Council and the senate finally to His Excellency the Chancellor and, therefore, in the opinion of the Committee it would be best to proceed in this report chapter by chapter as appearing in the Calendar. Changes have been suggested only in those places, where they are needed for bringing the Faculty of Oriental Learning into existence. Explanatory notes have been added wherever necessary. The list of contents would indicate (1) the main statutes and regulations, relating to the Oriental Faculty and (2) consequential changes in other places.

9. Chapter VI—The Deans.

Page 84—No change in the statute is needed. As in the Faculty of Law, the new Faculty would elect one of its members as Dean of the Faculty.

10 Chapter XI—The Faculties (General).

(i) Page 116. Statute 7 (1) (d)—Substitute "Law, Commerce, and Oriental Learning" in place of "Law and Commerce."

(ii) Page 117. Statute 7 (1) (e)—Substitute "Law, Commerce and Oriental Learning" in place of "Law and Commerce."

11. Explanatory note.

It is difficult to say, at present, what would be the actual strength of the Faculty when it is first constituted, because much will depend on the number of colleges, that might seek affiliation. But assuming that the strength of the colleges represented on the Faculty would be, say, 6 to begin with (4 for Sanskrit and 2 for Persian and Arabic), there would be 6 Principals under Statute 7 (1) (a); say 6 teachers under each of the sub-clauses (c) and (d) of clause 7 (1); and 5 nominees of the Senate under 7 (1) (e). This comes to 23. The Faculty could co-opt one-fourth of the total number of its members under clause 7 (3), so that the total strength of the Faculty would be nearly 30, which seems to be neither too big nor too small. The Committee, therefore, suggest no nominations to the Faculty by the Executive Council under Statute 7 (2), nor would they like to impose any restriction on the colleges for election under Statute 7 (1) (d), as appears in the case of the Faculties of Arts, Science, Law and Commerce.

As an alternative, if there are two Faculties viz., one for Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit and another for Arabic and Persian, and assuming that there would be 4 colleges in Sanskrit and 2 colleges in Arabic and Persian, the Committee would recommend the following strength for each Faculty —

	(a)	(b)
	Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit	Arabic and Persian
1 Principals	4	2
2 Teachers under Statute 7 (1) (c)	4	2
3 Teachers under Statute 7 (1) (d)	4	2
4 Nominees of the Senate, under Statute 7 (1) (c)	3	3
5 Co-opted members, one-fourth of the total number	5	3

New Chapter—XXXIII—F

Examinations—Faculty of Oriental Learning

Explanatory Note —

25 In U P, the best known examinations in Sanskrit are those of the Government Sanskrit College, Benares, which is about 150 years old and has been holding these examinations for the last 60 years or so. Most of the Sanskrit institutions in Rajputana, Central India and Gwalior, (which also fall within the territorial Jurisdiction of the Agra University); are at present preparing candidates for the examinations of the Government Sanskrit College, Benares. Next comes Jaipur Sanskrit College. This again is a very old institution and holds its own examinations, which are of an equally high standard. The Committee are leaving out the Benares Hindu University, the examinations of which are open only to the students of that University. They, however, generally follow the scheme of Government Sanskrit College, Benares, for the higher examinations (with which only we are concerned here) and the standards of the two are almost the same.

26. Both Government Sanskrit College and Jaipur Sanskrit College provide for a ten years' course after the Pravesika or Prathama Examination, which corresponds to the High School examination. They both take four years for the Madhyama or Upadhyaya Examination (or Intermediate Examination) and 3 years each for the Shastri (corresponding to the B. A.) and the Acharya (corresponding to the M. A.) Examination. This is much too long a period and the Committee doubt very much whether 10 years are needed for the purpose. In fact they are not, because a candidate would very commonly take 2 or even 3 examinations of the different examining bodies in India, e g. the Government Sanskrit College, the Jaipur Sanskrit College, the Bengal Sanskrit Association or the Bihar Sanskrit Association and so on, in one and the same year. They have no rules of registration and migration from one examining body to another which might require a student to remain on the rolls of one body only at one time. The other factor which helps to encourage this practice is that unfortunately in India, original texts, on the various branches of Sanskrit learning, which represented really first class research work of a very high order have ceased to be produced for very nearly 1000 years. Even commentaries on the old standard works have ceased to be produced for the last three or four hundred years, and no new books worth the name are being written in the present time barring, of course, a few very honourable exceptions.

Consequently the very same standard works and commentaries are included in the courses of study of almost all the examining bodies; the student prepares them and it does not matter whether he appears in those very books at the examinations conducted by one, two or even ten bodies. In the opinion of the Committee it cannot add much to his knowledge of the subject, although it adds a good deal to his paper qualifications, which seems to be in most cases the student's ideal at present. The Committee, therefore, feel that a good deal of this waste could be avoided and it should really be the aim of the Faculty of Oriental Learning in the Agra University to avoid this waste and to try by every possible means at its disposal to foster and encourage that sacred spirit of research and critical study and love of learning which the ancient scholars of Sanskrit possessed in so abundant a measure and which alone is the one thing essentially needed to advance the bounds of knowledge. But we cannot break away abruptly and completely from the prevailing traditions and, therefore, a via media has to be found in order to make this scheme acceptable to those for whom it is intended and at the same time to retain some speciality for the Agra University.

27. The Agra University under the Act, cannot conduct the Intermediate (in this case the Madhyama) Examination and, therefore, we are concerned here only with the degree and the post-graduate Examination, for which the Committee propose to adopt the current names of Shastri and Acharya respectively. The B. A. and M. A. Examinations cover a period of two years each and in the opinion of the Committee a four years' course after the Intermediate should be enough for the study of the more important standard works on a subject of study in the field of Sanskrit learning and so we might save two years here. The Committee do not think that thereby the standard of our examinations will in any manner be lower than the standard of the Shastri and Acharya Examinations of Government Sanskrit College, Benares. The Committee also feel that it is not necessary to conduct these examinations by compartment as the Government Sanskrit College and the Jaipur Sanskrit College are doing at present. Like the B. A. but unlike the M. A. the Shastri and also Acharya Examination may each be held at the end of a two year's course of study and there need not be a previous Examination for the Acharya degree at the end of a year's course. We must, however, provide for an examination higher than the Acharya (corresponding to the Doctor's degree) which should be a real test of the knowledge of the candidate in any particular branch of Sanskrit learning and which should command respect in the world of scholars. The committee have suggested the name of Dhanvantari for the examination in Ayurveda and of Vagisha for the examination in any other branch of Sanskrit learning.

28 In accordance with the views expressed in the foregoing paragraphs, the Committee recommend the following scheme for Sanskrit —

I SANSKRIT.

If the application is rejected, the fee paid by the candidate shall be refunded to him after deducting Rs 5.

(14) The thesis shall comply with the following conditions.—

- (i) It must be written in Sanskrit.
- (ii) It must be a piece of original work or research work characterised either by the discovery of facts or by a fresh approach towards the interpretation of facts or theories and should evince the candidate's capacity for critical examination and sound judgment. The candidate shall communicate how far the thesis embodies original work and investigations and in what respect it appears to him to advance the study of the subject.
- (iii) It must be satisfactory so far as the literary presentation is concerned and must be in a form suitable for publication.
- (iv) Three copies of the thesis accompanied by further fee of Rs 50 must be supplied to the University by the 2nd of January of the year during which the examination is to take place.

(15) The thesis shall be laid before the Board of Studies concerned which shall recommend a Board of three examiners for appointment by the Executive Council. The examiners shall examine the thesis and if it is considered satisfactory then viva-voce and if necessary a practical test also shall be conducted by at least two members of the Board to be named by the Executive Council for the purpose.

(16) If the examiners are satisfied, they shall make a report to the Executive Council and, if the Executive Council consider the candidate worthy of the degree of Vagisha or Dhanvantari, they shall confer the degree on him.

(17) If the examiners are not satisfied with the thesis, they may reject it or make such suggestions as they deem fit for the improvement of the thesis and report to the Council. If the candidate is permitted to improve his thesis, he may be asked to re-submit it not earlier than six months or later than 12 months from the date of such permission, without payment of a fresh fee. The thesis in such a case shall be re-examined by the same set of examiners as far as possible. No candidate shall be allowed to present his thesis more than a second time or to appear at the viva-voce or the practical examination more than a second time.

(18) In the event of divergence of opinion between the examiners of the thesis and the viva-voce or the practical, their reports shall be exchanged to bring about an agreement, if possible. If even then they disagree, the reports shall be placed before the Executive Council for such action as the Council may deem fit.

B SCHEME OF EXAMINATIONS

Explanatory Note —

29 In the scheme of examinations of Government Sanskrit College, Benares, there are six papers, spread over three years, (two for each year) for each of the two Shastri and Acharya Examinations and there is no provision for Ayurveda. All the papers deal with the special subject of study to be offered by the candidate for the two examinations, which must be taken only by compartment.

30. The Jaipur Sanskrit College on the other hand provides for eight papers (spread over three years) for the Shastri Examination, six of which deal with the special subject, one with Sanskrit-general and one with Hindi-general. In Ayurveda there are two kinds of examinations, one with the practical and the other without the practical and they confer two different titles on the two different kinds of graduates in Ayurveda. For Acharya Examination, they provide for seven papers (spread over three years) six of which are on the special subject and one on Sanskrit-general. In Ayurveda there are again two kinds of examinations, one with the practical and the other without it and two different titles are conferred on the two different kinds of graduates. The Shastri and the Acharya Examinations can both be taken either by compartment or at one and the same time.

31 Both Government Sanskrit College, Benares and Jaipur Sanskrit College insist on the candidates securing minimum pass marks in each paper, not only in the Shastri and Acharya Examinations but also in the two lower examinations, corresponding to the Intermediate and the High School Examinations. The minimum pass percentage is also much higher than what we have in the corresponding examinations of the Boards and the Universities. The Jaipur Sanskrit College percentage is higher than that of Government Sanskrit College in some respects, while in some other respects the percentage of Government Sanskrit College, Benares, is higher than that of Jaipur Sanskrit College. But on the whole the standards of the two appear to be same. The Jaipur scheme is a bit more modernised.

32 The Committee feel that higher minima do not necessarily mean higher standards, nor does it seem to be necessary to subject the candidates to pass in every paper. A good deal depends on the standards and traditions established by the examiners and the authority conducting the examinations, and the same number of marks might indicate two different standards at two different places. Therefore, the Committee do not feel in favour of unnecessarily making these standards appear stiff and in their opinion it will be wise to follow the scheme of our B A and M A Examinations in this matter. The last word on the subject must necessarily rest with the Faculty of Oriental Learning when it is constituted in the Agra University, but in the opinion of the Committee each subject for the Shastri Examination could easily be put under three groups, comprising two papers each corresponding more or less to the present papers in the various subjects in Benares and Jaipur and the candidates required to pass in the group (as they do at the B A Examination in History and Philosophy) and not in each paper of that group. Again it is desirable in the opinion of the Committee to continue the study of Sanskrit language at the Shastri stage (like General English at the B A stage) and not to drop it, as Benares Sanskrit College does. The Jaipur scheme seems better in this respect. But the Committee agree with Government Sanskrit College that there is no need of continuing Hindi in Shastri, the student should have learnt enough of it upto the Madhyama (Intermediate) stage. At the Acharya stage also (which corresponds to M A) the subject may be divided in convenient groups, (as in Shastri) and minima fixed for each group, instead of each paper. In the M A we declare a pass on the aggregate and there are no groups, but this practice would leave open to candidate for the Acharya Examination, the chance of neglecting one or more papers altogether, if they so choose. This is exactly what the Pandits do not desire. Therefore, at the Acharya stage too, the group seems to be a happy mean between the two extremes of a paper and the aggregate. Lastly, we have an essay paper for all the Arts subjects in M A and so has Jaipur Sanskrit College for the Acharya. The Committee wish to retain the essay in the scheme which follows — Ayurveda without a practical is unthinkable and so the Committee have made the practical compulsory (instead of leaving it to the option of the candidate as they do in Jaipur) insisting at the same time on a separate pass percentage in it, as we have in the practicals for the B.Sc. and M Sc Examinations. The adoption of the group system at the Shastri Examination will automatically have the effect of allowing the advantage of the supplementary examination to the Shastri candidates, just like the candidates at the B A and B Sc. Following our practice at the M A and M Sc, the committee have, however, disallowed it at the Acharya stage

33 With these ideas in view the Committee recommend the scheme which appears below —

15 The following scale of salaries is recommended by the Committee for teachers in the Faculty of Oriental Learning, teaching Degree and postgraduate classes —

For Principal	Rs. 150-10-250
Head of a Department	Rs. 75-7½-150
Senior Lecturer	Rs. 50- 5-100
Junior Lecturer	Rs 40- 5-75

NOTE.—The Arabic and Persian Sub-Committee, while agreeing with the spirit of the recommended scale of pay is emphatically of opinion that this may not be put as one of the conditions for recognition and affiliation of institutions to the Faculty of Oriental learning as almost all of the institutions teaching Arabic and Persian as such all over the country are maintained by religious endowments which may or may not be in a position to pay high salaries of the teachers. Moreover the scholars in Oriental languages have so far been teaching Arabic and Persian in a missionary spirit not caring so much for their personal gain as for the advancement of knowledge, literature and religion.

2. Under Section 21 (3) of the Act, R. B. Dr. G. N. Vyas, M. D., was nominated, seconded and unanimously elected Dean of the Faculty of Medicine for the residue of the term of Major-General H. C. Buckley.

NOTE.—At this stage R. B. Dr. G. N. Vyas occupied the Chair.

3. The Chair referred to the sad death of Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya, founder of Benares Hindu University. The following resolution was unanimously passed, all members standing:—

“The Faculty of Medicine of the Agra University places on record its sense of deep sorrow on the sad and untimely death of Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya and conveys its sympathy to the members of the bereaved family.”

4. The recommendation of the Board of Studies in Medicine (Resolution No. 1 of March 6, 1946) that the courses of study for the first M. B., B. S. Examination of 1949 and the Second and Final (Part I and Part II) M. B., B. S. Examinations of 1950 remain the same as for previous years, was considered and adopted (Vide Appendix A).

5 With reference to Faculty of Medicine Resolutions Nos. 8, 9 and 13 of December 10, 1945, the Faculty considered the opinion of the Board of Studies in Medicine (Vide Resolution No. 3 of March 6, 1946) on the following:—

- (a) A note on the "Revision of Medical curriculum" by Col Sir J. N. Duggan and Lt-Col's. A. S. Erulkar and D. G. Vad, forwarded to the University under endorsement No. F 12-F-45/127 dated April 24, 1945, from the Secretary, Medical Council of India, Delhi

S. degree, forwarded to the University under endorsement No. F 6-F-44/230 dated 1st May, 1945, from the Secretary Medical Council of India
- (c) The following remarks appearing in the report of the Inspector Lt-Col J. C. De, M. B., M. R. C. P. (Lond) M. R. C. S. (Eng), I. M. S. (Retd) who inspected the Agra Medical College in March/April 1944, on behalf of the Medical Council —
 - (1) Internship after passing the post-clinical examination for practical, clinical training before admission to the M. B., B. S. degree
 There is no provision in the regulations of the Agra University for internship for a period (Six months) after passing the final examination and before admission to the M. B., B. S. degree.
 - (ii) To obtain a pass, a candidate has to secure 50 per cent. of the marks assigned to the whole examination in the subject and 50 per cent. marks in the aggregate in the practical and clinical examination and 40 per cent. of the marks assigned to the written and oral examinations. The allowance of 50 per cent of the aggregate marks in the practical examinations for a pass oversteps the limit prescribed under the recommendations of the Medical Council of India, dated the 25th March, 1935, clause 20, wherein it is said that no candidate should be allowed to pass who fails to obtain 50 per cent of the aggregate marks assigned to the clinical examinations.

NOTE —The opinion of the Board was as follows:—

- (i) That the Board considers it premature to give an opinion on the important questions contained under items (a), (b) and (c) (i) without perusing the report of the Bhore Committee which has studied the problem and has just published the report.
- (ii) That in regard to the suggestion under item c (ii), the rule be modified for all clinical examinations (Medicine, Surgery, Obstetrics and Gynaecology and Ophthalmology) making it compulsory for a pass to secure a 50 per cent in the clinical portion of the examination. Necessary amendments to the scheme of examination in this connection are being proposed under Resolution No. 3 below.

Resolved that portions (a), (b) and (c) (i) be referred back to the Board of Studies for further consideration and specific recommendation and further that (c) (ii) be agreed to and carried.

5. With reference to Board of Studies in Medicine Resolution No. 4 of March 6, 1946, the Faculty considered the recommendation of the Board that in the interest of Uniformity there was no need for having an alternative question in each of the sections in pharmacology paper, as suggested by the Inspector, who inspected the Second M. B., B. S. Examination of the University on behalf of the Medical Council of India and resolved that the opinion of the Board be accepted.

7. Considered recommendation of the Board (Vide Board of Studies in Medicine Resolution No 5 of March 6, 1946) to the effect that the number of marks and percentage of passes in the written, practical and clinical portions of the Final M. B., B. S. Part II Examination be re-allocated as follows in the subjects of Medicine, Surgery, Obstetrics and Gynaecology and Ophthalmology:—

			Minimum Pass Marks.
Paper I	100	} 200	80	} 200
Paper II	100
Oral	40	} 100	50
Practical	60
Clinical	100

Resolved that it be accepted and recommended to the Executive Council for adoption.

8. With reference to endorsement No. F-29-A-F-45/1366 dated December 18, 1945, from the Secretary, Medical Council of India, to consider the action to be taken on letter No. F-29-A-F-45/1365 dated December 18, 1945, from the Medical Council of India to the Director General, Indian Medical Service, Simla, on the subject of facilities for admission of the holders of L. S. M. F. or similar diplomas to the M. B., B. S. degree during the War (Vide Appendix B).

Resolved that the Secretary, Medical Council of India be informed of the following opinion of the Faculty of Medicine of the Agra University —

- (1) That the decision of giving instruction in Anatomy and Physiology concurrently with instruction in clinical subjects is sound.
- (2) That the periods of study required of the licentiates who desire to proceed for the M B, B S Examination should be revised as follows —

Category	Clinical Subjects
(i) Ordinary Licentiates	2 years
(ii) Licentiate commissioned Officers of I A M C, who have not undergone 3 months intensive course at A. M. T. C. ..	2 years
(iii) Licentiate officers, who have undergone 3 months intensive course at A. M. T. C.	2 years
(iv) Licentiate officers with D. M. S. and other similar qualifications which involve medical studies for 5 years and have not undergone 3 months intensive course at A. M. T. C. ...	18 months
(v) Licentiate commissioned officers of I. A. M. C. with D. M. S. and other similar qualifications which involve medical studies for 5 years and have undergone 3 months intensive course at A. M. T. C. ..	18 months

- (3) That the following of all the subject, viz —

Pathology, Bacteriology, Hygiene and Public Health, Medical Jurisprudence, Medicine, including Therapeutics, Surgery, including Ophthalmology, Otology, Laryngology as well as Rhinology, midwifery and Diseases of Women, including Infant Hygiene, at the Final M.B., B.S. Examination will be too great a strain on the Candidates and therefore, the examination should be taken in two compartments as for Final M. B., B S (Part I) and Final M. B, B. S (Part II) Examinations at present in vogue.

9. With reference to letter No. 1663/C-50 dated March 26, 1946, from the Secretary, Medical Council, U. P., Lucknow, to consider the following extract from Resolution No. 11 passed by the Medical Council, U. P., at their meeting held in March, 1946:—

“That this Council requests the Universities of Agra and Lucknow to amend their regulations in such manner as would permit medical licentiates of ten years’ standing to sit for the final examination in Medicine, Surgery, Ophthalmology and midwifery after a six months’ intensive and special study of these subjects in the hospitals under their control.”

Resolved that in the opinion of this Faculty, a course of 18 months is the very minimum necessary for attaining the M. B., B. S. standard. The Procedure for the examination will be six months for the subjects of Final (Part I) and one year for subjects of Final Part II. They may be exempted from the First and the Second M. B., B. S. Examinations.

10. Considered the following Resolution No. 8 passed at the meeting of the Central Committee of the Tuberculosis Association of India, held on March 27, 1946.

The Tuberculosis Association of India is of opinion that—

- (a) Ampler facilities for training in tuberculosis should be made available to under-graduates,
- (b) That teachers of this subject should have special training in the diagnosis and treatment of the disease and should possess special qualifications in tuberculosis.
- (c) That those who specialise in tuberculosis work should have had at least one or two years house appointments in recognised General Hospitals before admission to the Special Diploma course, and strongly recommends these proposals for the consideration of the various Universities and Medical Colleges in India.

Resolved that the Faculty of medicines concurs with the views expressed by the Central Committee of the Tuberculosis Association of India.

11. The Faculty also resolved that facilities for appearing in the M. B., B. S. Examination of the Agra University be extended to non-intermediate group licentiates of genuine permanent residents of U. P. who have passed their Licentiate examinations from a recognised State Medical Faculty of U. P., C. P. and the Punjab.

1. The Minutes of the last meeting of the Board held on March 5, 1946, were confirmed

*2. The revised instructions for the conduct of B Sc practical examination were discussed and adopted by the Board (vide Appendix 1) These should be made applicable from the examination of 1948. No paper setter for B Sc practical need be appointed when these instructions come into force

*3 The Board considered the question of the B Sc practical examinations in some colleges, where the number of candidates is very large and resolved that no practical examiner should be asked to examine more than three batches (maximum of 120 candidates) and that the number of examiners for such colleges be determined with reference to the total number of examinees

4 The Board further resolved to request the Registrar to issue the lists of practical B Sc and M Sc. examiners in the first week of January to enable the fixing up of dates satisfactorily

†5 The detailed syllabus for M Sc Previous 1949 in Inorganic chemistry and in Organic Chemistry as submitted by Messrs Antani and Deshpande were discussed and adopted by the Board (Appendix 2)

†6 The detailed syllabus for M Sc Final 1949 in inorganic and Organic branches, as submitted by Messrs Antani and Deshpande were discussed and adopted by the Board (Appendix 3)

7. In view of four colleges teaching upto M Sc standard, the Board discussed a scheme to maintain a fairly uniform standard of practical examination and accepted the suggestions put forward by the convener, and agreed to their being tried in actual practice from the M.Sc Examination of 1947 (Appendix 4)

8. In view of the impossibility of holding the practical M.Sc. (Previous and Final) Examinations in one college at Agra, due to the very large number of examinees (about 40), the Board recommended that the Previous and Final Examinations be held at both the colleges and that two Boards of 3 examiners each be appointed. These boards should function as a joint Board in view of the Co-operation teaching of Chemistry at Agra. Inorganic at St. John's college, Physical at Agra College, Organic at both the colleges. Working out of the details was left to the Heads of Departments of Chemistry at the two colleges

9 The list of practical examiners recommended on March 21, 1946, was revised and a final list of examiners for 1947 was recommended

Vice-Chancellor: Members of the Senate, it is my privilege to welcome you once again to your annual meeting of the Senate and I do so with great pleasure. It is now six years since I have had the privilege of presiding at these annual meetings of the Senate and this occasion is the last time that I shall have the privilege of addressing you as Vice-Chancellor. I wish to say a few words, firstly to thank you, each one of you, for the kindness, the courtesy and the co-operation that invariably and without exception you have extended to me, both in the difficult work of conducting the deliberations of a large body like this and also in the work of the University. Before I take leave, I do wish to thank you most sincerely for this co-operation and for this kindness and courtesy

It has been the practice during these last six years for me to begin the meeting of the Senate with a few words reviewing the activities and the work of the University during the year and placing before you certain problems, which seemed to me to deserve the urgent and earnest attention of the Senate which is the largest body, in fact the parent body of the University. Even at the risk of tiring you, because I know you wish to go on with certain elections and other matters (things of that kind), I would, on this last occasion, keep up the practice and draw your attention to certain urgent problems not in any sense peculiar to this University, but important at the moment because this is the last time they will be referred to so far as I am concerned. They are matters which have been very much in my mind and to which I have made constant reference in all these years, matters which, I hope, will continue to engage your attention even more strenuously.

A long time ago, perhaps, when I first addressed you, I put before you three problems, which seemed to me to be the most urgent and pressing problems before a young university like ours. At the top of the list I put the urgent need for a University Library. I then said to you, it seemed to me that no university, leave alone an individual, could live, without reading books; that no university would live without having a library worthy of it. I then said to you that we must endeavour to bring into being a University library, and lay its foundations by having a university building, stocked properly with books for research in all subjects which individual colleges with their limited resources could ill afford to purchase. A university can both be built up in five or six years in times like these and start the work of building a library.

As the second and equally urgent problem I referred to you the question of the salaries and status of University teachers. I pointed out to you how unhappy I myself, as one who has been a teacher all his life, felt at the status of our University teachers, their emoluments, their position in society and the handicaps to which they were subjected.

Thirdly, I also referred to you the great need of making our military training or what we call the U.O.T.C. into a reality; that the training which these boys receive might be a real force in maintaining discipline in our universities, and for fitting our young men to the most important task of maintaining the freedom of their country.

Gentlemen, if I refer to these matters once again it is not in any sense with a desire to put myself on the back or to claim any credit for what might have been achieved in these three directions, I mention them because I, more than any one of you, realise the insignificant part I have played in what we have been able to achieve during these six years in these important matters. The question of credit does not arise. It has come to very few men to see within their term of office or within their life, the fulfilment or accomplishment of plans to which they have set their heart. I realize, with very great, regret that whatever the cause might have been, it might have been my inefficiency or preoccupation, very little has been done in these directions during these past six years. I certainly cannot claim any kind of credit for any great achievement, or tell you that I can be proud of what has been done in these matters. Therefore, it is all the more necessary that before I bid farewell to you I might once again draw your attention to these most urgent and pressing problems, so that the work may be carried on, as I trust and hope it will be carried on, by my successors. Of course, it is not the Vice-Chancellor or even the Executive Council nor even the Senate alone that can accomplish these tasks. These are tasks for the wider public, those who are educated themselves and those who seek after knowledge. When I draw your attention it is with the intention and desire that these matters may not be forgotten or relegated to the background; because there are very many national problems more urgent and difficult to accomplish.

The first point that I ask you to consider is the question of the library. I do not believe that anyone of you will deny the dire necessity of a library worth the name. This University does not possess a library and in so far as there are books they are hardly worthy of being called a library. We have given thought and attention to this matter and I can say, at least, that we have been able to secure a plot of land next to our Senate House, which is a most suitable place for the building of a University Library. We have advanced further than that and have even got plans ready now. We have also to be thankful that during the last six years we have been able in spite of our very limited resources to put by Rs. 75,000 for the purchase of books, I hope that money will never be used for the building. Yet the fact still remains, that in spite of our efforts and all that we have done not one single penny has been received from the Government towards the building fund of the University upto now. That is a matter which needs your consideration. This University needs a library building worthy of the purpose for which it is to be built and I hope that some time or other the Government of these provinces will be persuaded to assist us. But as Government have pointed out to us again and again this is also the duty of those who belong to this University, those whose sons and daughters have passed out of this University, those who are its old students, particularly, those who are wealthy citizens living all over the U. P., Rajputana, Central India and Gwalior. Both rich men with large fortunes and poor men with their mites should help us to build this library. We know very well how the great libraries of the west and especially in America owe their foundation and their value not to the generosity and assistance of Government but to the generosity of private individuals. I need not name the donors. They are too well-known.

Secondly, gentlemen, there is this question of the position of teachers, their emoluments and their social status. Here again I speak with a good deal of personal feeling, because I have been throughout my life a teacher and I am proud of the fact that I have been a teacher. I would like to repeat that I am proud to be a teacher. All over the country from those people who write to the press and even from very many of you, gentlemen, there is so much criticism of the university and the school teachers in India. Everybody is willing to pour contempt on them and say how unworthy they are how greedy, how inefficient and unable to teach the youth of the country. Now, gentlemen, when we make these criticisms they are scarcely well deserved. I do realize that there are these shortcomings in many cases, I ask you, gentlemen, especially those who are public men and who are not actually teachers themselves, is this criticism altogether fair? Has the teacher in this country been treated fairly? I ask you, gentlemen, whether a teacher in this University is treated with the consideration that belongs to him and to his office? How many educated parents are there in this country who would ever advise their sons and daughters to take up the teaching profession? Unfortunately, you are very well aware that you and I, when we advise our sons as to what profession they should choose, put teaching at the bottom of the list. We say first try the civil service, then the police, then provincial civil service and if you even then fail, enter a business firm and we add if you cannot get in anywhere, then take up teaching as a last resort but if you must be a teacher be an assistant lecturer. That is the mentality which is responsible for the present position of teacher's in this country. Have we given the teacher any adequate means of livelihood? Does he earn enough so that he can have decent clothing, so that he can educate his children, so that he can be free from the daily anxiety of making both ends meet and keep his body and soul together? I want to ask—have we treated, or are we treating our teachers in the University fairly? That is the first problem which I submitted to you when I became Vice-Chancellor. All along I held that our first duty in this country is to give to the teacher a minimum living wage. A statute had been passed that no teacher in this University should get less than Rs 100. Now I ask you, is that a reasonable wage? Nowadays everywhere the most unskilled labourer demands, at any rate in Delhi Rs 2-8-0 a day. I do not want to belittle manual work but the fact remains that the most uneducated, the most illiterate person is able to claim a wage of Rs. 2-8-0 a day then is it fair that a teacher in a degree college should be paid only a hundred rupees? We are now trying our best that the lowest salary paid to University teachers should be Rs. 150. And yet till last year we knew that in this University alone there were as many as 160 teachers in receipt of salaries below Rs 150 a month. Is that not the first and foremost problem before you that you should see that the University teachers here are adequately paid? There is so much criticism that the teachers spend much more time in University politics, or in angling for examinerships or in getting a few rupees out of T. A. than in learning and imparting knowledge. And people who make these allegations think that they are saying something wonderful. Isn't it self-righteousness to condemn a teacher, because he does these things? Are you giving the teacher educate means so that he should be independent of these desires? Gentlemen, I say with all the earnestness that I can command, that first you should give the teachers a living wage so that they may be above need and then be as severe as you please. Having given him a living wage you can then restrain him from trying to earn a few rupees from elsewhere. Demand from him high standards. Demand from him leadership which he at present does not display, because he is harassed by financial and other difficulties. Demand from him all these things later. But first do him justice. That is a point which you as a University ought to do. I have done my little best in trying to impress this on Government, the managements of colleges and on all concerned. The first and foremost duty here is to make our University teacher worthy of his calling and this can only be if we give him a fair chance.

Finally, gentlemen, I would like to speak to you again on this question of the training of our youth in the defence of their country, not for aggressive warfare; for India, I hope, will never belittle itself or disgrace herself by undertaking aggressive warfare but defence, for the defence of the motherland is everyone's duty. Ladies and gentlemen, we stand on the threshold of a new era. I want to say to those who believe that freedom in substance has been attained, that we have attained self-government. The form, the outward form, may have still not come, but independence, in fact is here as you can see by the mere fact that at the centre and in all the provinces there are our own men in charge of governments. I put this problem before you. It may have been a long and difficult task to win the freedom of our country, but it will be much more difficult to retain and maintain the freedom which we have won, or which we are about to enter fully. No country's freedom is worth 24 hours' purchase if the men of that country are not able to defend that freedom and the first training in this art is at school and university, where every young man ought to be able-bodied and be trained to defend his country, his hearth and his home. I am not preaching to you any kind of militarism or any kind of aggressiveness. I detest that from the bottom of my heart. I am and have always been a man of peace. But I do realize that the best way of preserving peace—particularly in the state of the world today—is for each country to be able to defend itself against outside and unjustifiable aggression and that is where we ought to benefit from the U. O. T. C. As I have said I tried to press this matter on Government and on the military authorities with the very little success, though we have been able to get a small increase in the strength of our U. O. T. C. We have been able to get one company at Cawnpore and another at Bareilly which did not exist before. But I still submit that so far as military training in the University is concerned it still continues to be nominal. Some people say it almost amounts to a farce. This is not the time to go into the reasons why this is so. The fact is that it is so and it has been so. Now has come a time when the old prejudices against students being armed, or the students being able to defend themselves have gone by the board. We have got a national government which fully recognises the need for such training and the United Provinces Government has declared that it would make military training compulsory. That is a question which I want to bring to you for your earnest consideration whether you, as Principals of colleges and as teachers in charge, will also give more attention to this matter. Again and again I have had complaints from our U.O.T.C. officers that neither the principals of colleges nor teachers—except those who actually accept commissions—have any interest in the U. O. T. C. in their colleges, and that it is not treated with any kind of seriousness by other colleges. I do not know how far this is true, but I think a new mentality is necessary. In passing I say this to you that the U. O. T. C. is not only a body to train our men in self-defence, but it is also a most potent force for the training of a disciplined mind in youths. Who knows better than you how much lack of discipline, for reasons which we need now explore, exists amongst our students. The whole sense of discipline has been undermined in practically every university. I still believe that it is a passing phase and that it will pass away. Yet if it is to pass away and if the enthusiasm of youth and their high spirits are to be utilised for the good of the country and for the building up of character it is high time that the Principals and teachers recognise the fact and realise the real situation, that the time has come when either we should close down, or that we should have discipline in our colleges and in our universities. It is no use trying to impart knowledge or education to minds that are not disciplined. No education is worth while without discipline and a man does not become educated until he has learnt self-discipline and I commend to you the form of training now known as U. O. T. C. as a most valuable and powerful agency for disciplining the minds of students.

Finally, ladies and gentlemen, I would say this that after having mentioned these three problems which to my mind are most important, there is the need of an entirely new outlook in the whole field of university education in our country. There are certain most important problems where reiteration is necessary and beneficial. The great need of the moment is the changing of the whole purpose of university education in this country. University education in this country has been marked by what is called material interest. The universities in this country were founded, not really for the purpose of seeking after knowledge or carrying on research, but to prepare men who would be able to run the machinery of Government, a government, which at that time, was not of the people, and that has resulted in the mentality that every young man and woman who goes to a university goes there not to gather or to obtain knowledge but to get a degree. I put this to you, is there a student in a university who would be willing to study three years if he can get a degree in two years or even a year and half? Is there a student in our University who goes there or would go there, if he knew that he may not get a diploma at the end of a four years' or six years' course? Or if he would only be known as a man who sought after knowledge and not as a graduate, or master or a doctor? You cannot blame them for that is why they were sent to the university. But a new outlook is needed that universities may cease to be, what they have been rightly described, as factories for manufacturing graduates. Now, they should become the seats and homes of learning and places where men of all castes, creeds and communities who seek after knowledge associate. All students should join in that brotherhood for this search after knowledge, that knowledge may to some extent become an end in itself. If that is to be done, gentlemen, the first thing that is needed is that universities may come to be looked upon as national possessions, as something of a heritage which a nation is proud of. Think of the pride that nations take in old universities like those of Oxford or Cambridge or Paris and other places, where these universities are looked upon as national heritages. But that is not so here. Here people consider them as a department of Government. It is unfortunate that this is so. This is a passing phase. The time has come when each one of us should be able to look upon the university as something belonging to himself and, therefore, he should stand behind it and support it. Therefore, I have to point out to you the failure of a university like that of Agra. It is a university of the United Provinces and of the Indian states with a vast territory. I realize how many handicaps an affiliating university has. It does not get into touch with students. It does not command the earnest enthusiasm of the people. Yet in a vast country like India an affiliating university is a necessity. You cannot have a university in every town of the U. P., nor can every Indian state have one. Therefore, an affiliating university has a purpose to serve. But the time has come when we should begin to consider this as our own university. Gentlemen, I cannot hide from myself the fact that in this University, started about 20 years ago the only benefactions that have come to us are a large benefaction from its first Vice-Chancellor, who, though he loved this University, did not belong to this country, another from the special officer who held charge of this University for a while, I refer to the late Mr. Kichlu, and the last but by no means the least, for I consider it to be rich in its glory, came from a minor unknown clerk in Ajmer who gave the whole of his provident fund without any condition whatsoever to this University and said, it was to be used as we liked. That is the kind of man whom we now need even more than the rich and the wealthy. The fact still remains that not one who went out from this University as a teacher or student has given anything in return to the University out of his personal earnings or his personal possessions except, of course, a few medals which have been founded in the memory of some people, sometimes four or five names strung together on one medal, with an endowment of Rs. 300 for all time. I do not consider them as a benefaction. They may be good in their own way, but they are not all benefactions. I, therefore, ask you, gentlemen, to remind yourselves that you have got to serve and support this University. It is no use all the time thinking that the Government must do this and that. The Government and the people of this country are now one and, therefore, the people must do their share. If the people do their share, then the Government will follow suit.

Gentlemen, I have taken a good deal of your time. I leave this University my good wishes and I shall always be interested in its welfare. I have the fullest confidence that those who succeed me will carry on the work which has been done by my predecessors and by myself. I wish you all godspeed and I wish the University godspeed and I hope that it will flourish and that it will become, what I am afraid it is not at present, a real university. (Applause.)

Before I come to the actual business of the day, ladies and gentlemen, I desire to refer to the passing away of a great son of the United Provinces, not only of U. P. but one of the greatest sons of India, a figure respected not only in our country but known and respected far beyond its limits. Ladies and gentlemen, I refer to the late Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya. In him the country has lost one of its elder and most respected statesmen and educationists, a social reformer, a man of learning and of piety. I am sure that you agree with me that we ought to pay our tribute to a man who was beloved by millions of his countrymen, a man who devoted the whole of his life to the service and to the cause of education in particular. The Benares Hindu University was his greatest achievement. He was in every sense its real founder. It will be the greatest monument of his life-work and of his personality and it will throughout ages remain a permanent living monument of its great founder.

At the same time the life of Pandit Malaviya has been to each one of us a very great lesson, a lesson which we need to learn. Firstly, here was a man learned in all the western arts and sciences and yet one who valued the ancient heritage of his land and kept it enshrined within his heart, a man whose learning was combined with great piety. All the time he asked us not to think of the mundane things of the world but of eternal truths and the higher values of life which in this material world are so liable to be forgotten. Finally, he was a man who held earnest and sincere political views and convictions and throughout all the vicissitudes and changes of life, where we have heard men again and again change their political opinions, be it said to the credit of the late Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya, that he stuck at all costs to his political views and convictions and suffered for them. I would, therefore, now ask you to rise and pay our tribute to him.

All the members of the Senate then stood in their seats for a couple of minutes.

I think that the Senate authorises me to convey to the sons of the late Pandit Malaviya and his family our sorrow at the passing away of our illustrious countryman and our great admiration and thankfulness for the work which he has done in his life

The Senate agreed to the proposal.

14. The Senate considered, under Section 32 of the Act, the Annual Report of the University for the year 1945-46, prepared under the direction of the Executive Council.

Dr R. K. Singh: Sir, the many-sided progress as indicated in the report must be a matter of satisfaction to the members of the Senate and to all lovers of education and I particularly congratulate you for the very liberal policy you have followed during the course of these six years. I congratulate you specially for the affiliation of new colleges and for addition of new subjects in older colleges. Rajputana and Central India colleges are particularly grateful to you for extending some representation due to them in the Executive Council. That may be a very welcome move. I must at the same time draw attention to the feeling of some people in this part of the country that Rajputana and Central India colleges have rather behaved sheepishly in giving their support to a group of people who have manipulated and managed affairs of the University to their own advantage. If they can in future behave better the University of Agra will be a better place. Then, sir, the registered graduates too should be grateful to you for extending their representation from 15 to 30.

Here, too, I am sorry to remark that the Registered Graduates' Constituency is one of the most corrupt constituencies in the country. (Cries of 'Question'). It is not a matter of question, it is a matter of shame to the graduates of the Agra University who are willing to be subsidised by a few rupees by the party in power and cast their votes according to the dictates of the party. It is not a matter of question, it is a matter of shame, please make note of that.

Apart from that a particular objection to which I have to call attention is the report of the Dean of Agriculture. If you go over the report of the Faculty of Agriculture you will find that it has been reported to you that all the elections in the Faculty of Agriculture have been unanimous. I should like to tell you and to tell this House the kind of unanimity that prevails and has prevailed in the Faculty of Agriculture for the last six years or more. All the elections have been unanimous. But you will like to know the brand of unanimity that prevails there. It is of the same variety that you find in this house where the elections during these few years have been unanimous, not that there has not been a different point of view but that we have been so cowed down that we have learnt that it does not pay to oppose the party in power. That unanimity has been earned in a very bad way. In the Faculty of Agriculture, as you know, the Faculty elects 11 members to the Board of Studies. There are three colleges in the province affiliated to the Agra University—the colleges at Cawnpore, Lakhaoti and Agra. Out of 11 members who have been elected from the Faculty of Agriculture to the Board of Studies, seven come from Cawnpore, three from Lakhaoti and one from Allahabad and there is not one representative of Balwant Rajput College, Agra. That is the kind of unanimity that prevails in our Faculty of Agriculture and I may tell you for your information that one college has protested and walked out of the meeting; because it was not dealt with fairly. I think the Dean—I do not mean the present Dean for whom I have got respect but the outgoing Dean—He would have done well, if he had reported, not that there was unanimity but that the enemy was completely annihilated and that all was quiet on the western front and that fullest prosperity was assured to the party steeped in corruption and questionable practices. But we have no grievance against the Faculty of Agriculture for we know full well that it is acting under a mandate from higher quarters. Its leaders are out for money through they have been overdoing the job. In my opinion the time has come when your successor might send another mandate, or the executive might do so. That the Balwant Rajput College deserves a fairer treatment not for its own sake but for the sake of this University, for the sake of this Senate, for the sake of respectable people whose good name has been abused by the action of the Faculty of Agriculture.

I am personally very grateful to you, sir. When I gave vent to these feelings I knew that the Vice-Chancellor has tried to be fair to all. But I know many times you have failed and it was no fault of yours. It was the difficult circumstances in which you were placed. I hope your successor will find it easier to do the right thing in this direction.

Mr. Krishna Rao: In the reports submitted by various colleges the results seem to have taken the first importance. Every college seems to take pride in the fact that it has produced 70, 80 or 90 per cent. passes as probably a commercial company will take pride in saying that it has declared 80 or 90 per cent. dividends. You just now said, sir, that the main purpose of a university is not to mint graduates as in a factory. I would, therefore, like to see in the next year's report the contribution that these colleges have made to the social life of the people, of the particular place or of the province.

There seems to be no mention also of extra-curricular activities. In some colleges I know that there are sufficient extra-curricular activities provided. I feel that extra-curricular activities are of as great importance as studies. You just now remarked, sir, that there is a great lack of discipline in colleges. That is because there is great surplus energy in the youth of the country and they do not know how to give vent to it. That is why it gets into dangerous channels. If we give them some kind of extra-curricular activities, and also teach them how to do things and not merely how to learn, and give up this kind of pipe-line education where student's minds are regarded as empty vessels into which a teacher could pump as much as he likes, I am sure you will not only have better results but we would improve the sense of social service of the students of a college.

It was then moved that the report be adopted.

The motion was duly seconded and the report was adopted.

15. Under Section 33 (1) of the Act, the Budget Estimates of the University for the year 1947-48, framed by the Executive Council were submitted to the Senate.

Dr Ishwari Prasad: Mr. Vice-Chancellor, I would like to make a few observations on the budget which has been presented by the Executive Council and which is published in the minutes dated August 24, 1946. It has been a very great pleasure to me and I am sure it has been the same to the members of the Senate that you have spoken of the ideals of a great university. You concluded your eloquent speech by saying that this University was not in the true sense of the term a university and a good deal had to be done in order to make it a real university like the universities of the west. You have also spoken with great emphasis of the need of intellectual culture and the promotion of research in the University. All this is very fine indeed.

I am not going to indulge in platitudes. I am sure members of the Senate will be businesslike in order to record a resolution today that what is needed is more and more liberal financial assistance from the Government.

You, sir, have very well said that the University needs money. You asked His Excellency the Governor to lay the foundation-stone of the library building. The Government was niggardly in giving money. The library building has not yet come into being. You have said that you have transferred a particular fund of Rs. 75,000 to the library fund. It is very kind of you to have done so. But I feel that Government ought have contributed more funds to this University. I remember many years ago when we invited—that was, I think, about the year 1928,—Sir C. V. Raman to deliver the Convocation Address. He described ironically the grant that Government give us as a “magnificent grant of Rs. 40,000.” With a small annual grant of Rs. 40,000 you cannot expect a seat of learning to do research work and to promote and fulfil ideals which you have so eloquently described before us this morning. A university needs money for many things. What is a university without a library? We want books of reference, learned journals which are constantly required by research students. The numerous teachers in the affiliated colleges feel greatly handicapped for want of books. Therefore, it is very necessary for the Senate to emphasize to Government that what is needed is liberal assistance to carry on our work.

There was in this University in the time of Dr. Basu, who is happily present here this morning, the practice of delivering extension lectures throughout the jurisdiction of the University. Eminent scholars were invited to deliver these lectures. For want of funds they were abandoned. It is a great pity. Several times I stressed before the Executive Council the need for them but no money could be found for the purpose.

Salaries of the staff must be raised in the University. You have spoken about the position of the teacher and his status. Everybody feels it. But more active steps ought to be taken by the Government in order to improve the status and position of the teacher. As a member of the governing council of the Agra College, I know we have always experienced this difficulty. We make proposals that the status of the teachers should be raised. The Agra College lecturer ends at Rs. 250, he has to work all his life on this small salary. We pass resolutions again and again that the salary of low paid teachers should be raised. Proposals are sent up to Government and they are thrown into the waste paper basket. That is the state of affairs. Post-graduate teaching in the University has to be improved. If that is to be done, we certainly require more money. More money is needed also for the purpose of pushing forward scientific research.

Then there is the demand of physical education which has been suffering a good deal in this country. The U.T.C. is doing a good deal, but the U.T.C. does not benefit every student who receives education within the portals of the colleges. We have to do something more. I had the honour yesterday of moving a resolution in the Executive Council about physical education, that the University should take more active steps to improve the health of students receiving education in our colleges. You were good enough to suggest and the Council agreed that a committee should be appointed for this purpose.

We should press upon Government the desirability of giving us more money. The original grant was Rs. 40,000 and the figure remains the same even today after 19 years. It is a matter of deep regret. The bureaucratic Government is no longer in office. We have a national Government installed in power. There are in this house members of the party of the Government present, influential, powerful and public-spirited gentlemen. I am sure they will help us and will back the demand of the University for more money and the Government will be persuaded to increase the grant, so that the ideals which you have placed before us may be fulfilled in future.

The Budget estimates were then accepted.

16. Under Section 33 (2) of the Act, the Senate passed the Annual Accounts and Audit Report for the year, 1945-46.

17. The Senate elected Dr. C. J. Chacko to serve on the Board of High School and Intermediate Education, Rajputana (including Ajmer-Merwara), Central India and Gwalior in place of and for the residue of the term of Dr. T. S. Sabnis, who had ceased to be a teacher in an affiliated college.

18 The following names were proposed for the election of six persons to serve on the Board of High School and Intermediate Education, Rajputana (including Ajmer-Merwara), Central India and Gwalior, with effect from the date of the annual meeting of the Board in October, 1947.

20 With reference to letters No 1311 of June 28, 1946 and No. 2872 of August 16, 1946, from the Deputy Secretary to U. P. Government, U. P., Economics and Statistics Department, Lucknow, the Vice-Chancellor reported that the Executive Council had nominated Dr. P. Basu as the representative of the University on the new

The Senate confirmed the nomination made by the Executive Council.

21. The Senate recorded the receipt of the following letters from the Secretary to His Excellency the Governor, U. 22. The Senate considered the following additions and amendments to Statutes proposed by the Executive Council under Section 27 (4) of the Act:—

Vice-Chancellor: If you desire an explanation of any item I will ask the Registrar to explain. If you want to make any comment this is the time to do so.

I. CHAPTER VI—THE DEANS.

(Ref. Executive Council Res. No. 76 of Oct. 23, 1946).

In the Statute omit the words "if he is an Engineer."

The amendment was adopted.

II. CHAPTER XVII—AFFILIATION OF COLLEGES.

(Ref. Executive Council Res. No. 71 of Oct 23, 1946).

In Statute 5, add the following under Clause A:—

For Sociology, M A. in Economics of Calcutta, Bombay or Lucknow University with Sociology as the special subject, provided that the course of Sociology has at least two papers in the M A Examination, or one who has passed any other examination recognised by the Executive Council as equivalent thereto

Dr P. Basu: This is based on the opinion of the committee of experts who were consulted in this connection. It was found that these three universities have added in Economics courses on Sociology which are taught up to M A. Therefore, for the present this committee recommended that the degrees of these three universities be recognised and there is this provision I could not say that committee considered that the degrees of all the universities in India, probably one or two universities might have been left out.

Mr. Upadhyaya. I think there is some misapprehension about the matter. The Mysore University has Sociology as a subject for the M A. It seems to me, therefore, natural that the choice of these three universities does not disentitle other universities.

Dr. P Basu: Not at all. I am sure that when this question is brought up before the Executive Council, they will include Mysore University.

Mr Upadhyaya: I propose that M.A. in Economics of Mysore University should also be included.

Dr. P. Basu: If this is done now it will delay matters by one year.

Item 11 was accepted as it stood.

Dr. P Basu: The reason is that these universities only have that subject. But it is due to the ignorance of the committee about Mysore University.

Mr Upadhyaya: The syllabus that you have adopted is practically on the lines of the Mysore University.

The amendment was then put to vote and adopted.

III. CHAPTER XVII—AFFILIATION OF COLLEGES.

(Ref. Executive Council Res. No. 19 of Aug. 24, 1946).

Statute 5.

- (1) (a) For Arts subjects, other than Drawing and Painting; M.A. in the subject.

- (b) For Drawing and Painting Holders of 'Fine Art diploma' of any one of the following institutions, by a regular course of study at the institution concerned (and not as a private candidate) possessing at least five years' experience of teaching Intermediate classes —

The amendment was adopted.

IV. CHAPTER XXIII—SCHOLARSHIPS, ETC.

(Ref. Executive Council Res. No. 78 of Oct. 23, 1946).

Read para (1) of the Statute as follows:—

- (1) Ten Research Scholarships of the value of Rs. 75 per mensem each to be awarded annually to candidates selected by the Executive Council. The Scholarship will be tenable for twelve months at any college affiliated to the University on condition that the scholarship holder devotes his whole time to study and research and does not engage himself in remunerative work or prepare for any competitive examination during the period of the scholarship. A cash prize of Rs 300/- will be awarded at the end of the year to the research scholar who is able to produce in manuscript a paper of a standard usually required for publication by a research journal, to be so certified by the teacher under whom he has carried on research work. A copy of the manuscript paper will be submitted to the University. The scholarship should not be continued for the second year, unless the candidate has obtained the prize on the work done during the previous year and his application is supported by the teacher for further work during the next year.

The reports of the progress of research work shall be submitted by the Professor in-charge through the Principal of his college to the University Office twice, once before Christmas and again before the end of April.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: I was not present at this meeting of the Executive Council. Will you kindly look up page 169 of the Calendar? Research scholarships of the value of Rs. 75 per mensem, etc. Why is the word 'Ten' omitted? Is it an omission by mistake?

Vice-Chancellor: The words here are Research Scholarships. It leaves the discretion in the hands of the Executive Council as to the number. Our idea is to increase the value of these scholarships.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: In the old statute the word 'Ten' was there.

Dr. P. Basu: I think it is a mistake of the office.

Registrar: It is a typing mistake. It should be "Ten Research Scholarships of the value of Rs. 50"

The amendment was put to vote and adopted.

V. CHAPTER XXIX-A—EXAMINATIONS (GENERAL).

(Pages 193-94 of the Calendar for 1945-46).

In Statute 15 delete the words "or the First, Second or Final M.B., B.S. (Part I or Part II)" occurring in the preamble, and para (1) and the note to para (1).

The amendment was adopted.

VI. CHAPTER XXIX-A—EXAMINATIONS (GENERAL).

(Ref. Executive Council Res. No. 194 of Mar. 9, 1946).

Add the following as a new clause (c) at the end of Statute 22:—

(Pages 200-2 of the Calendar for 1945-46).

Delete Statute 23 and re-number existing Statute 24 as 23.

The amendment was adopted

VIII. CHAPTER XXIX-B—RE-ADMISSION TO EXAMINATIONS.

(Ref Executive Council Res. No. 20 of Aug. 24, 1946).

In Statute 1—

(a) Read the first sentence of the last para as follows —

A candidate who has passed in theory but has failed in practice at the B T Examination may be allowed by the Executive Council to appear, without attending any further course of study, in any subsequent examination in practice held within a period of three years from the date of his first appearance at the examination, provided he continues to be a teacher in a recognised school

(b) Add a new para at the end of Statute 1 as follows:—

A candidate who has passed in practice but has failed in theory at the B T Examination may be allowed by the Executive Council to appear, without attending any further course of study, in any subsequent examination in theory held within a period of three years from the date of his first appearance at the examination

Dr. R. K. Singh. The words are “may be allowed”. It is discretionary with the Executive Council whether to allow or not to allow a candidate. If so, what are the matters which will be taken into consideration?

Dr P C Lal I think the word ‘may’ may be allowed to stand; because in case we receive a student who is utterly useless it may be that we cannot recommend him to appear at a subsequent examination. I think this word ‘may’ will help us to meet such a case.

Vice-Chancellor But who is the authority to decide?

Dr. P. Basu: Except in the case of a regular student in the case of all others who are admitted to any other degree the word 'may' is used. The Principal of a college is responsible for discipline and character and if he certifies it is all right. I think the proper word ought to be 'may' so that the University in the case of outsiders, if it gets a report about any student, may without assigning any reason refuse to admit any such student. In all cases wherever they are not regular students this word 'may' appears always.

Mr. R. R. Gupta: It should be 'provided he continues to be a teacher in a recognised school or college'. We might have people teaching in an Intermediate college.

Mrs. Vergese: It is necessary for a student to teach in a school; because he is appearing for the B.T. Examination. Therefore, it should be 'school'.

Mr. R. R. Gupta. He may be a teacher in an Intermediate college.

Vice-Chancellor: By a little change you will be delaying the whole thing for one year.

Mr. Mukerji: This does not apply to a student who has already received permission. It only applies to a candidate who has failed. We should consider whether the word 'may' gives the power to the Executive Council to refuse him. 'May' may be taken to apply to a teacher who teaches in the Intermediate colleges also.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: The statute cannot be amended here. It will have to go to the Executive Council.

Vice-Chancellor: I have already pointed out that. I said, if you make any changes here now you will have to send it back to the Executive Council.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: That would mean a great hardship to the teachers.

Vice-Chancellor: The best course is to adopt it as it stands.

The amendment was then adopted as it stood.

IX. CHAPTER XXIX-F.—EXAMINATION CENTRES.

(Pages 220—21 of the Calendar for 1945-46).

(Ref. Executive Council Res. No 18 of Aug. 24, 1946)

(a) Add the following proviso to Statute 1:—

Provided that in order to meet the demand of a particular area, the Executive Council may, for any special reason, waive the above-mentioned restrictions and create a new centre on such conditions as it may think fit

(b) Substitute the following note in place of the existing note:—

NOTE.—The restrictions in regard to the average number of candidates shall not apply in the case of a Medical or an Engineering College in the University.

Prof. N. K. Sidhanta. (Inaudible).

Dr. P. Basu: The reason why the University feels compelled to open new centres is that in three or four University centres the number is so large that the candidates cannot be accommodated in the colleges themselves Meerut, Agra and Cawnpore, I suppose, have got the largest numbers and the Principals there say that it is impossible for them to accommodate all the candidates who are appearing from these centres as regular candidates and private candidates. Then the question is, what is the University going to do? The University has no option but to open new centres. No new centres under the existing statute can be opened, unless in that particular college there is a certain number appearing. So in order to continue to hold our examinations and to accommodate these students it is essential that the University should open fresh centres. They cannot be opened under our present statute. A provision has got to be made for opening fresh centres even when it has not been a centre for five years with a certain minimum number of candidates. It is necessary that we should adopt this statute in order to enable the University to conduct these examinations in at least three centres where the number is so large that it is physically impossible to accommodate all the candidates in these existing centres.

Dr. R. K. Singh. I have exactly the same thing in mind as pointed out by Prof. Sidhanta. Your amendment of the statute completely nullifies your previous statute.

While it may be permitted to go through I strongly feel that the whole statute needs revision and the Executive Council may be recommended to do that.

Vice-Chancellor: Is it your proposal that it should be sent back to the Executive Council?

Dr R. K. Singh: No, sir, I accept that.

Mr. P. D Gupta: We may accept the statute, otherwise it will be held up for one year.

Dr P. Basu. Will it be in order if I suggest that this statute be passed and simultaneously the Senate also passes a resolution that the whole statute in connection with examinations be reconsidered by the Executive Council and if an amendment is necessary it may be brought up next year?

Vice-Chancellor That is entirely in order.

The proposed amendments were then adopted.

11. If the candidate is permitted to improve his thesis, he may be asked to re-submit it not earlier than six months or later than twelve months from the date of such permission. In the event of no definite recommendation being made by a majority of the examiners, the thesis shall be rejected and the candidate informed accordingly. In case, the recommendations of the viva-voce examiners differ from the recommendations of the examiners of the thesis, the candidate may be asked to re-appear at the viva-voce examination within one year. If the Executive Council consider the candidate worthy of the degree of D Litt. or D.Sc. as the case may be, they shall confer the degree on him.

Dr. R. K. Singh: I should like to know whether these have been sent to the Academic Board and whether the opinion of the Academic Board has been obtained; because the Act lays down that all these matters should be referred to the Academic Board.

Vice-Chancellor: No, it has not been referred to the Academic Board.

Dr. R. K. Singh: In order to be technically correct and also on account of certain defects I propose that the matter be sent back to the Executive Council.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad. I should like to invite you to give a ruling on the question. Dr. Singh has said that these statutes should have gone to the Academic Board. I don't think it is the business of the Academic Board to deal with statutes. It deals with courses and syllabuses of study. I do not think that the statutes are to be submitted to the Academic Board about Ph D degree. I was a member of the committee when these statutes were first laid down. It is a matter for your ruling.

Vice-Chancellor: If you are raising a point of order, I should like to hear you. We must first settle the question of procedure. If you would like to say anything in support of your contention I think you had better do that.

Dr R K Singh. Look at page 44—Section 19 (2) and (3). Ph D. is an examination and it has also some reference to the standard of research and under this section all changes in the examination and procedure should be referred to the Academic Board before they come to the Senate.

Dr. P. Basu: Look at page 112—(5) (a) Powers of Academic Board. The first function is so broad and wide—to advise the Executive Council on all matters—that I am afraid the motion is quite the proper thing. May I enquire whether the holding up of this statute would mean that nobody can get the Ph D. degree?

Mr. P. D. Gupta. If the Academic Board does not come in where the passing of a statute is concerned, then the legal procedure is perfectly right. Of course, the practical question as to whether on an academic matter like this we should have the opinion of the Academic Board is a different matter. But I submit there is nothing unconstitutional or illegal; because the Academic Board does not come in where the passing of statutes is concerned. The way in which statutes are passed is clearly laid down in the Act and it is according to those clauses of the Act that the passing of a statute is to be governed.

Dr. P. Basu. Refer to University Act Section 27 (3). The powers and duties of the Academic Board are being affected by this statute and it is provided that in such a case its opinion shall be taken into consideration by the Senate.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: Dr. Basu relies upon clause (a) of Statute 5.

Vice-Chancellor: I am asked to give a ruling, whether this can come up without the opinion of the Academic Board. I was going to quote to you what Dr. Basu has read. Under that I am afraid, however much I desire that this may go through quickly, I must say that the opinion of the Academic Board must be obtained first.

Dr. R. K. Singh. I may assure you that it is not out of obstinacy that I have raised this matter; because I am convinced that the statute as it has been framed does not serve our purpose. That is the reason why I raised this technical objection.

Vice-Chancellor. Since I have ruled that this cannot be considered by the Senate without the opinion of the Academic Board, it is not in order to permit discussion. You will discuss it when you have received the opinion of the Academic Board.

The amendments were adopted.

23. With reference to Senate Resolution No. 35 of November 22, 1945, it was reported that the Executive Council considered but did not approve (vide Resolution No. 159 of March 9, 1946) of the proposal of Mrs. M. N. Vergese that the model form of agreement between teachers and the managements of affiliated colleges (vide pages 150-53 of the Calendar for 1945-46) be amended as follows:—

- (i) That in clause 2, the words "and shall be paid a monthly salary of Rs" be omitted.
- (ii) that in clause 3 the words "on confirmation after the period of probation" and also the words "the payment of salary..... .. are available" be omitted.

Resolved that it be recorded.

24. The next item on the agenda was to consider the report of the committee appointed (under Senate Resolution No. 48 of April 23, 1946) to consider the whole question of reviewing the duration of the University courses and the nature and stages of the various public examinations with particular reference to the proposal of a three years' degree course and the re-organisation of secondary education.

The Registrar reported that the meeting of this committee was convened for November 2, 1946, but it could not be held for want of quorum.

Mr. P. D. Gupta: I want to move a resolution of which in the very special circumstances no notice could have been given. I wanted to give notice and I thought that the committee would meet.

Vice-Chancellor: why did you not write to me?

Mr. P. D. Gupta: I did write to the Registrar,

Vice-Chancellor what has been done cannot be undone.

Mr. P. D. Gupta: The resolution reads—

Resolved that in view of the contemplated changes in the system of university and secondary education in these Provinces, this Senate deems it necessary to invite the attention of Government to the fact that, apart from the disputed question of whether these changes constitute any real reform in the present educational system, they will gravely affect not only the educational system but also the financial position of the colleges affiliated to this University. The Senate, therefore, deems it necessary that the University should have an opportunity of considering and formulating its views on any concrete proposals which the Government may bring forward before giving them statutory form.

Vice-Chancellor I have no objection to give Mr. Gupta permission, but I would like to have the views of the house whether they wish to consider the resolution. If they are prepared to consider it I have no objection.

Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao It is a highly controversial matter. If you start a discussion it will go on for hours.

Vice-Chancellor All I want to know is whether you have objection to the discussion of this resolution. I am sure my learned friend appears to be young and able to stand the ordeal of a long discussion.

Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao. I remember last year you said that most of the speeches are uninteresting.

Vice-Chancellor I take it that it is the general view of the house that I should permit the discussion of this resolution.

Mr. P. D. Gupta It has been said that it is a highly controversial resolution. The very fact that it deals with a highly controversial matter makes it very important. It seems to me very strange that educational changes of very great importance should be made without giving an opportunity to those bodies vitally affected by those changes to express their opinions.

I would like to remind my friend who said that this matter was highly controversial that all that this resolution wants at the present moment is not to discuss whether those changes should be introduced or not; but that before Government undertakes legislation on the subject, the proposals made by Government should be submitted to the University and the University should have an opportunity of expressing its opinion thereon. Is it the intention of my friend that the University should be denied an opportunity of expressing an opinion on what he calls a highly controversial subject? If this is so, I do not agree with him.

It has been repeated almost adnauseam that Government has made up its mind and nothing that the University will say will alter the mind of Government. I do not in the first place agree with this view. If the Senate were to express an opinion on a vital matter like this that opinion will receive due consideration from Government. Even, however, supposing Government ignores our opinion we should still do our duty. If we feel that certain changes are being made which vitally affect us, and which may later adversely affect the University on its constituents colleges, we should insist upon our being consulted before these changes are introduced. We should tell the Government they should not ignore the University in a matter like this.

We should, therefore, bring it to the notice of Government that these changes vitally concern our University and, therefore, Government, before it gives legislative form to its proposals, should give this University an opportunity to consider them and formulate its opinion thereon.

Dr. Hafiz Syed. Government will say that we have given you sufficient time. This question was brought up in the April meeting. Government will say, how it is that you have not considered this in April and November. Whose fault is it, is it the fault of the Government, or of the members of the Senate? If you have been in earnest you would have gathered together and submitted your proposals to us. Since the meeting of the committee has not been held, there are only two alternatives. One, let us discuss it on the floor of the Senate, here and now, or you may forward your proposals without further discussions to the Government. But to blame the Government—not that I am a Government man—is not right, it is not the fault of the Government. Government has given you enough time. If you have not framed your resolution it is not the fault of the Government.

Dr L. P. Mathur: Is it a fact that the University received definite proposals, or any indication about the introduction of the three years' course or the nature of the new changes?

Registrar: Nothing so far.

Dr. L. P. Mathur: Then my friend's objection falls to the ground.

Prof. N. K. Sidhanta: The proposal for the three years' degree course was brought up on the report of the Narendra Deo Committee and that report was sent to the University. The University did express some opinion about it. So I do not see how we are justified in telling Government now that we never had an opportunity of considering this; because any proposals that are likely to be initiated now will be on the basis of the so-called Narendra Deo Report. I do not think it has got any particular name assigned to it in Government files. But that report was sent to the University and the University had a chance of expressing its opinion upon it. If the Government takes action on it, they can always say we have got the opinion of the University on this matter.

A member: I rise to a point of order. Was it discussed here?

Vice-Chancellor: We had a special meeting in April. We had information that the Narendra Deo Report was ready, a copy of it was sent to the University for its opinion at the time. I was not then the Vice-Chancellor. I was a member of the committee appointed by this University to record our opinion on that report. Dr. Basu was the Vice-Chancellor and a reply was sent. I cannot now recollect as to what reply we gave on the three years' course. But as there were so many other more urgent issues that I do not think that we gave any particular attention to the three years' degree course. Then later on Government appointed certain committees to consider those recommendations. Those committees met in Allahabad. I was asked to be a member. Those reports were submitted to the Government. Then it became a live issue; because the reports had been sent and the question was discussed at a special meeting held in April for other purposes as well. One of the main purposes was to discuss this question of the three years' degree course. When this matter was raised in the meeting of April, I think a good many general speeches were made. The Senate then wanted that a special committee be appointed and a special committee was appointed. It was then intended that the special committee should meet in August. Unfortunately, as I have already explained, that meeting was not called in August but it was called in November. There was no quorum and there is no report before you. But in view of the fact that the same member was responsible for the meeting which was called in August, I permitted my friend, Mr Gupta, to move that resolution. Now it is open to you whether you wish to pass that resolution as it stands, whether you want a lengthy discussion, or whether you still want to wait till this committee waits, that is, wait till next year. I shall not influence your judgment. I am neither a protagonist nor an opponent of this thing. I merely give a chance to you to express your views now.

Dr. Sampat Ram Chaturvedi: May I take it that the University has accepted the principle of the three years' degree course? In the light of the previous discussion it appears as if the University has accepted the three years' degree course. Is it necessary that the proposal shall be discussed, or has the University expressed its opinion?

Vice-Chancellor: The University has expressed no opinion.

Dr. Sampat Ram Chaturvedi: Then it is left to the University to express its opinion whether we are in favour of the three years' course or we are not.

Mr M. R. V. Krishna Rao: I suggest that the committee do meet and give its considered opinion, so that the Senate may discuss its report at its next meeting.

Dr. Hafiz Syed: Has the committee ceased to exist, or is it still functioning?

Vice-Chancellor: It is a very difficult question to answer; because the committee could not give its report; because it was not called earlier. Secondly, it could not meet; because there was no quorum. The question is left to you whether this committee should meet again or not.

Mr. Shiromani: I think it was a technical mistake that the committee did not meet. A meeting of the members of the committee may now be called so that they may re-consider the question.

Vice-Chancellor: The members of the committee were:

The Vice-Chancellor,
The Deans of the six faculties,
The Rev. Canon T. D. Sully,
Prof. N. K. Sidhanta,
Dr. L. P. Mathur,
Mr. P. D. Gupta,
Dr. Ishwari Prasad,
K. B. Syed Raza Husain,
Mr. K. P. Bhatnagar, and
Mr. B. P. Beri.

Dr. Hafiz Syed: Supposing that this committee meets again and its deliberations are given to the Vice-Chancellor (Vice-Chancellor: it is no use giving to the Vice-Chancellor) in order to place them before the Senate, will you hold a special meeting of the Senate, or will you wait till November 1947? That is another difficulty before us.

Vice-Chancellor: I can only tell you that it costs Rs. 10,000 to call a meeting of the Senate. I cannot bind my successor, that is for him to decide.

Prof. N. K. Sidhanta: If it is necessary to call the committee it seems to me that as all the members are now here we might have a meeting tomorrow.

Vice-Chancellor: I have no objection as long as my presence is not required.

Dr. L. P. Mathur: As far as I can make out the question of referring the matter to the committee does not arise. Unfortunately my friend, Dr. Hafiz Syed, has given a completely wrong turn to the whole debate by suggesting that we want to blame the Government. This is not a political body and there is no intention on the part of Mr. Gupta or anybody else to apportion blame or anything of the kind. What we want is that our case should not go by default. We should have an opportunity as a Senate to express our opinions on this very important and very vital question. The question of blaming the Government does not arise at all. Prof. Sidhanta has referred to the Narendra Deo Committee Report, but he knows that it is not only the Narendra Deo Committee Report which is being considered by the Government. Coupled with it are the Sargent Report and a number of new proposals. The Narendra Deo Committee Report has almost gone out of date. Under the circumstances the best thing for the Senate to do is to adopt a simple resolution like the one moved by Mr. Gupta.

Dr. R. K. Singh: If we are to give an opinion we cannot give any opinion till one year and till then the Government should do nothing but wait for our resolution.

Mr. Shiromani: If it is possible that a meeting of the special committee may be held and the report of the committee may be circularised to all the members of the Senate, then their opinions may be invited. If hon'ble members consider certain changes necessary, then their opinions may be taken into consideration by the Executive Council and the Executive Council may formulate its views to the Government. That would save the expenditure of the University as well and we shall have a chance to express our opinion on this important question. It is right way to offer an opportunity to every member of the Senate to express his opinion before any change is made.

Mr. C. Mahajan: The resolution of Mr. Gupta seems to be so innocuous that I cannot understand why it should give rise to so much discussion, or arouse any apprehension. Even if the committee meets now it will not have before it any really concrete proposals from the Government; because such proposals have not been received. Before Government rushes to make any deliberate changes which would vitally affect the present educational system, the resolution wants that this University which is an affiliating University and which is in a different situation from a teaching university should have an opportunity to consider these proposals and express its opinion. If the Government sends such proposals in January and wants the University to consider them soon, the Vice-Chancellor may call a special meeting of the Senate. If the Government sends these proposals and gives longer time for consideration, then the matter can wait till the next Senate.

Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao: The resolution refers to contemplated changes. I would like to know what those contemplated changes are. Till those changes are indicated to us and till we definitely know that they are contemplated, I do not think this resolution is of much use.

Dr. A. N. Singh: The University is an autonomous body and the Government by a resolution of their own cannot make a two years' course into a three years' course. The legislature, I am sure, will not be in such a hurry. They must consult us and they must have our opinion before they pass anything. I think we should wait. If the Government bring up some concrete proposals, there will be enough time to consider and give our opinion. My proposal is to postpone the consideration of this matter.

Rai Bahadur Pandit Joti Prasad Upadhyaya: While I have no objection to accepting the motion of Mr. Gupta, my personal opinion is that the formation of the committee mentioned in item No. 24 of the agenda as well as this resolution are absolutely useless, for if vital changes are made either in the constitution of the University or in the matter of examination or studies—all these proposals will go through the Provincial Legislature in the form of a Bill. The Bill will be circulated for eliciting public opinion. Expert opinion will be invited. I do not think Government will rush through such important legislation and turn it into an Act without considering its effects. The teachers of the University are a bit nervous that probably their position is being jeopardised. (A member The position of the teachers does not come in.) If any vital changes are made in the Act or the constitution of the University they will be brought to the notice of the general public of the province. The Bill will be published; it will be examined threadbare, expert opinion will be taken on it and the Bill will be circulated for eliciting public opinion. I think this resolution is unnecessary and somewhat premature as the Government itself will certainly look into the question very carefully. Whatever may be the form of Government no legislation can be rushed through in connection with an important matter like this.

Vice-Chancellor: I would like to say a few words. There are a few questions before the house. One is the resolution which, with your approval, I allowed Mr. Gupta to move and that is merely a resolution before the house and the proper course is to vote on that resolution. But I have allowed you to suggest various other methods of dealing with this subject; because this is a matter of great interest to this University and I do not want in any way to stifle discussion. I would like to know what the position is. The position is that the University of Agra has not at any time received any communication from Government that they intend to make any such change. Nor have we, except in the matter of the Narendra Deo Committee in which I only served, dealt with this matter. But there is a large number of other matters and we have not been asked to express any opinion. I do not know whether the Lucknow University has received any communication of which Prof. Sidhanta is aware.

Prof. N. K. Sidhanta Not so far as the new proposals are concerned.

Vice-Chancellor: That is the present position. My learned friend, Rai Bahadur Joti Prasad Upadhyaya, who spoke just now has tried to allay feelings of those of you who are rather nervous about this matter. But I would like you to fully understand the position so far as I see it.

This very important matter has been carried out in practice in the Delhi province and the Delhi University. As I happened to be at that time a member of the Executive Council of that University and in charge of the secondary education of the province, I was directly concerned. Government did not bring this matter before the Legislature. They merely, by executive action, asked me to give effect so far as schools were concerned and bring them about by executive order and there are now secondary schools with 11 years' course. I am still very doubtful whether the Delhi University Act was amended. I think it was done by amendment of the statutes and ordinances and it did not go before the legislature. I can't absolutely vouch for that. My impression is that they did not go to the Legislature. So far, in Delhi, effect was given to this new course by executive action on the part of the Government and it seems to me we cannot hide from ourselves the possibility that the same thing may be done in the U. P.

It is open to the U. P. Government to alter the present educational system by executive action and introduce the new scheme in schools and colleges. The only difference is that whereas the U. P. Intermediate and High School Education Board is the creation of the Legislative Council, the Board in Delhi was not the creation of any legislative body but established by executive action. So whether the Rai Bahadur who is a lawyer is correct or not I cannot tell. But I have to tell you this that in Delhi the change was effected within a very few months by executive action and now the point is if you accept my friend, Mr. Gupta's resolution, you are merely expressing what may or may not carry weight with Government and you most certainly are not doing any harm.

As regards the other matter, that this matter should be considered by the same committee de novo and that their views should be submitted to the Vice-Chancellor and that he should ask for the views of the Senate and take action by correspondence, I take it that it would be an amendment to the resolution. Both matters are now before you.

Mr. P. D. Gupta: I am prepared to accept it.

Prof. N. K. Sidhanta: Should he not make the point definite what he is referring to in his resolution—is it only the three years' degree course, or is it also re-organisation of the secondary education, or whether it is any other allied matter? The second question will depend upon the answer to the first

Mr. P. D. Gupta: I am not referring to the three years' degree course.

Prof. N. K. Sidhanta: What are the questions to which this resolution refers? Is it the Narendra Deo Committee Report, or some other report which the Government might be considering, or is it the special officer's report which the Government might be considering?

Mr P D Gupta. It is not for the Government to ask us what we want. It is we who are asking what they want. We read in the papers that changes are contemplated. We tell the Government "If you have got any concrete proposals to put forward, please do so. If you have any Bill to bring forward, please do so. But give us an opportunity—it may be through the Senate, or through the Executive Council or through any committee appointed by any body of this University—but give us an opportunity for expressing an opinion on certain definite and concrete proposals that you would like to bring forward" I am not sorry that the meeting of that committee was not held; because if that committee had met the discussions would have been in the air. Mr. Sidhanta said that the Narendra Deo Committee Report has been before the public for a pretty long time. I agree. I remember that the discussion on the Narendra Deo Committee Report took place when I was a member of the Executive Council. Your discussions on the Report covered a number of things. We do not know what exactly is in the mind of Government. What we do know is this that changes are being contemplated. Any newspaper will tell you that. We want to know what changes are contemplated and when Government inform us of what changes are sought to be made, it would then be the task of the University to consider those proposals and tell the Government what it feels about them.

Prof N. K. Sidhanta I am entirely satisfied. He wants a general idea of what Government is going to do.

Mr. P D. Gupta: Dr. Singh said that the University is an autonomous body and Government cannot do anything without consulting the University. But I put it to him. He is a member of the Intermediate Board and the Intermediate Board is also a statutory body subordinate to Government. Government may make such changes in the organisation of secondary education as they like. Then consequent changes may become incumbent on the University. For instance, if the Government abolishes the 12th class from the Intermediate colleges and if the Government abolishes the Intermediate examination, then surely we cannot carry on with our two years' degree course. We shall have to make consequential changes. Dr Singh is not entirely correct in saying that Government cannot force us to do anything. Government may amend the Act even without consulting the Senate.

Dr. R. K. Singh: To which Dr. Singh is he referring? (Laughter) There are two by that name in this house.

Mr. Gupta: I am referring to Dr. A. N. Singh who made these observations. Then my friend Rai Bahadur Joti Prasad Upadhyaya attributed a motive. He says we are anxious because our position is threatened.

Rai Bahadur Pandit Joti Prasad Upadhyaya: I repudiate the charge. I never meant it.

Mr. Gupta: We are certainly apprehensive, but we are apprehensive for academic reasons and not for our own position.

Rai Bahadur Pandit Joti Prasad Upadhyaya: I still say that you are putting the cart before the horse.

Mr. Gupta: Then he says that Government is not going to rush through legislation without consulting the University. I hope that Government will not. All that my resolution wants is to remind Government that it should not. If my friend is so convinced that Government will not rush through without consulting the University, there is no reason why he should not support my resolution.

Rai Bahadur Pandit Joti Prasad Upadhyaya: I agree.

Mr. Gupta: His speech did not indicate that he agrees with me.

Rai Bahadur Pandit Joti Prasad Upadhyaya: My first sentence was that there was no harm in accepting the resolution of Mr. Gupta.

When Dr. Ishwari Prasad rose in his seat the Vice-Chancellor said: Mr. Gupta tells me that he has made his final reply. So I cannot allow any further discussion.

Dr Ishwari Prasad. Has the Senate received any official communication? Can Mr. Gupta commit the Senate to his resolution?

Vice-Chancellor: Rightly or wrongly I admitted the resolution

The resolution was then adopted by the Senate.

Mr Gupta I want to move a consequential resolution. In case the Government does communicate any proposals those proposals may be considered by the committee appointed by the Senate at its last meeting and its recommendations duly endorsed or modified may be sent on to Government.

Vice-Chancellor: If any such contingency arises as Mr Gupta has envisaged, the Vice-Chancellor and the Executive Council will take the action necessary I cannot now allow you to move a consequential resolution

25 (1) Dr. R. K. Singh moved—

“With a view to open the door of higher education to all those who cannot afford to study in a college as regular students and thus to popularise higher education among the poorer section of the society, and to remove the invidious distinction made among the teachers of the recognised schools and non-teachers and teachers of unrecognised schools, women students and other students, and the regulations of this and the other universities in this respect, it is hereby resolved that the Provincial Government be approached to amend the Act in such a way as to declare open all University examinations to all private students who may be qualified otherwise subject to the rules and regulations to be framed hereafter by the Executive Council in this respect. Further the Senate recommends to the Executive Council to frame such necessary statutes and regulations and suggest such necessary changes in the existing ones as to afford all possible facilities for the private students to appear in the University examinations”

I am happy that the house is in a cheerful mood when I have been called upon to move the resolution

Prof N K Sidhanta: Has the house already considered a similar resolution at any time before?

Dr. R. K. Singh: I am prejudicing my case by stating that this resolution was moved by Mr. R. S. Vidyarthi in 1941 and was rejected by this Senate. I have gone through the speeches made on that occasion.

I have noted the objections raised at that meeting. I am again to appeal to the generosity of the house. This is an appeal on behalf of the poorer section of the society. In the Agra University, as in the other universities, there is a large number of students who have got the will as well as the means to go for higher study. There is another section which has got the means but not the will. They are compelled to exist in our institution, because their parents so desire. So in our institution there are two categories—one has got the will and the means and the other has got the means but not the will. There is a third category who would like to benefit by a university degree if our University so permitted. They are those who have the will but not the means.

I should say at the very outset that University education is a very precious privilege and those who do not avail of it are deprived of it by certain circumstances. I request the house to open the door of the University so that the poorer section may be able to take advantage of it. Last time when the resolution was moved three objections were raised against the resolution. One was that the university atmosphere is a sine qua non of university education and, therefore, a student who is allowed to appear privately is deprived of the university atmosphere and, therefore, it is undesirable. I may say without insulting the Agra University Senators—I myself am a part of it—that there is no such thing as university atmosphere in the Agra University for the simple reason that the Agra University is constituted of constituent colleges—good, bad and indifferent. (Dr. Basu took the chair) 80 to 85 per cent. of the students going for the University examination are day-scholars who live in dingy quarters and hardly come across anything of what is called educational atmosphere except class-room lectures. So far as I see, the university atmosphere will not be vitiated by permitting a handful of students to take the examination privately. You are permitting teachers placed in any corner of the province. You permit deputy inspectors and sub-deputy inspectors who have never heard a university lecture to appear at University examinations as private candidates. You may enlarge that circle a little and permit a handful of more students as private candidates for the examination,

The second objection which was urged—I do not suppose very seriously—referred to the financial aspect, that the colleges will be poorer in their finances. I do not suppose anyone was serious about it. You allow the High School Examinations and the Intermediate Examinations to be taken privately and no one will say that our High School and the Intermediate classes are being depleted thereby.

The third reason which was urged with a certain amount of seriousness was about the difficulty of examinations that if a large number of students take the examinations privately the standards will be affected; because the examiner while examining note-books is naturally affected by the worse. That is a right point. Probably if out of 100 answer-books 80 are from bad students your standards are likely to be affected. I have examined the Intermediate students. But I do find that in every centre about five or six students are taking examination privately, but they affect my judgment. I do not think that this is really a serious objection to the opening of the university examinations to such students.

There is some weight in all the points, which have been urged before and which may be urged in this house again. The Agra University is a purely examining body and even if the standards be slightly lowered, even if the colleges suffer slightly and even if the students to whom we give degrees do not have the university atmosphere, don't you think the advantages will outway the disadvantages? You will confer a boon on a section which otherwise would go without university education. If a student has got facilities he will go to your colleges; if he has not, he will come as a private student. So I request that the house may be pleased to accept this resolution.

Dr. A. N. Singh: I second this resolution of Dr. R. K. Singh. He has already explained the necessity of his resolution and I agree with him that it is necessary that those students who cannot afford to go through a regular course in our colleges be allowed to take the examinations of this University and get degrees. A provision like this probably exists elsewhere outside India. In America and other places students who are not teachers, and who have not attended classes, can take examinations and get degrees. Further, the resolution here as worded only recommends that this be considered by the Government and necessary amendment be made in the Act. I think there is no harm if this suggestion is sent to Government. Government will then consider the question and if it is in public interest, will amend the Act, but if they think that it is not in public interest they will not do so.

As far as the University is concerned, I do not think the University will suffer in any way, if private students are allowed to appear at our examinations. There is, however, one thing here—the word ‘all’ private students. I will not agree to the use of this word ‘all’. There are some University examinations which cannot be taken by private students, for instance, the B.Sc. or the Engineering Examinations and other examinations which require work in practical classes. I believe that Dr. Singh’s intention is that those examinations which do not require attendance at practical classes should be declared open to private students.

Dr Sampat Ram Chaturvedi: I oppose this resolution. It is not our intention to impart university education to everybody. The freedom allowed to every student to appear in the High School Examination is generous. We do not want to create universities in every muhalla. There is already a mushroom-like growth of university colleges in smaller towns even. We do not want that in every muhalla there should be a university where facilities for proper University education are not available.

I oppose this resolution as far as education in the University is concerned. We must have some standard. As regards some subjects it is quite impossible for private students to appear in the examinations. I wish that the University would maintain some standard and would not make the degrees very cheap.

Dr K. C. Mehta: I also oppose this resolution to throw open the University examinations to private students. The experience of examiners has been that the private candidates present a very low standard indeed and this merely means a discouragement to students who come into our colleges and who have to spend a good deal of money on their tuition in the college. Then I believe that the purpose of university education is not merely that a student can mug up text-books and pass examinations. A degree has also certain implications with it, that a certain cultural standard has been attained and that can be attained when a student has spent a number of years at a good college. That implies going through the programme of the college activities. Culture comes by contact with cultured persons, by the congregations of students and teachers and meeting with learned persons from day to day. The University will be defeating its own purpose if this kind of resolution is accepted.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: I am very sorry that I am unable to see eye to eye with Dr. Singh on a matter of much vital importance. Several years ago when the proposal was discussed before this house I opposed it very strongly along with a number of other members of the Senate. I am surprised that the Principal of a college should have brought forward a motion of this kind which, if the Senate adopts it, will amount to committing suicide. The resolution is of an omnibus character. It asks us to recommend to Government to legislate in such a manner as to make it possible for private candidates of all kinds to appear at all our examinations. Obviously if I have read the resolution aright, Dr. Singh wants the University to permit private candidates to appear at the B A, B Sc, M A, M Sc, LL B, as well as other examinations.

That will be a very difficult position for this University to accept. As my learned friend, the Principal of the Agra College said, the purpose of obtaining a degree is not merely to test that a student has read a few books on a particular subject. The real object of receiving education in a college is to liberalise the outlook and enlarge the understanding and to fit him for the larger responsibilities of life. Therefore, a resolution of this kind cannot be permitted, which grants permission to everybody to appear at all our examinations.

Dr. Singh has said that teachers, deputy inspectors and others have been permitted. Teachers have been permitted; because they have reached a certain stage of intellectual development, they are engaged in teaching and they have got the necessary facilities and the necessary equipment for pursuing the courses of study. I do not see how Dr. Singh hopes to benefit many of the private students who have no means. I appreciate his humanitarian desire to benefit the great mass of students who cannot on account of poverty go to colleges. But there is a conflict between the heart and the head. I really appreciate his motive, but my intellect refuses to accept the proposal he has placed before the Senate. The B A course is a sufficiently heavy course. The M A course is advanced enough and requires very careful guidance. How will private students study these courses? It will be highly improper for the University to ask the Legislature to make such changes in the Act. I do not contemplate this catastrophe with equanimity. Another member may get up and say that the Agra University should sell its degrees as some of the American universities do. We may sell our B. A. degree for Rs. 20, Rs. 30, Rs. 40 or Rs. 50. Dr. Singh speaks of American students. I know them. I have seen some Indian gentlemen purchasing American degrees. I have seen Oxford and Cambridge graduates too and I can say that there are all kinds of graduates. It will suffice to say that in a matter like this we should act with a full sense of responsibility. We cannot allow anybody and everybody to appear at the University examinations. We cannot give a carte blanche to every body and permit him to abuse a privilege which no other Indian university grants. I gather the mover at the end of his speech seemed to realise that the proposed step would lower the standards of the University. No educationist, no parent or guardian who has the welfare of his ward at heart, will give his assent to a proposal of this kind. I, therefore, request the Senate to reject it; because it is highly dangerous.

(The Vice-Chancellor took the chair).

Mr Richardson: Sir, already a number of gentlemen have spoken about this resolution. They have covered most important points, but I do think there are three or four points to be emphasized. Firstly, it is said that if this was done only a handful of students would be benefited. But I think that as a university degree is a necessary passport to any decent job in India thousands will be involved. Secondly, it was stated by the mover of the resolution that perhaps in some other countries—

I am glad he said "perhaps" in America—people were admitted to examinations without going through a course of studies. I cannot speak for all American universities, although I am a graduate of one American University myself, but as far as I know, at least 15 years ago in America, there was no university whatsoever which admitted students to its degrees who had not undergone some course of study either at or through any university or college.

The question of lowering the standard has already been dealt with and in my opinion is self-apparent. Also the question of university atmosphere has been mentioned. You, sir, have with your usual clarity and eloquence already put before house today the ideal of making this University, and I dare say others, into universities of which we can be proud. I cannot imagine that we will be carrying out your wishes if the first act we pass after hearing your address is to move a resolution that we should admit every Tom, Dick and Harry, regardless of his character and efficiency, into all examinations.

I do not wish to put the negative aspect only. I have been for a great many years a keen and active participant in adult education work throughout this country, and I remember when we first started in Delhi a great many years ago, we took up this question with the universities authorities. We wanted students who had studied in night classes in our institutions to be allowed to sit at the examinations of the University of Delhi or other universities. That proposal I still believe has a good deal to be said for it. I think this University should and could run night classes at which young men and women who are earning their living and cannot go to the university, if they are really keen and not simply desirous of cramming certain books, can attend. I do think this matter ought to be seriously concerned by this University in the near future.

Secondly, with further reference to America, I would point out to the mover and the supporters of this resolution that even in the wealthiest universities of America such as Princeton, Yale and Harvard, 50 per cent. of students earn their way through college. They come from poor families. They cannot pay for their education. They spend their spare time, without serious detriment to college activities, in earning. Surely that is the spirit we want to build up in India (Hear, hear) We already have too much of the spirit of giving people something for nothing. We look too much to Government to dole out this and that. I would like you to think how much money the American Universities get from them. The leading American Universities get not a penny from them. We are thinking too much of an easy path to knowledge and growth of education. There is no such easy path and the sooner we give an opportunity for those who seriously want to work to get a degree the better. I feel very strongly about this. There should always be opportunities for the suppressed, but certainly this is not the way to accomplish that. I have, therefore, to oppose this resolution. (Applause)

Chaudhri Dharamvir Singh: I rise to support the resolution moved by Dr Singh. I can say that in our country there is a tendency to oppose widespread education and this furnishes the reason for the political subjugation of this country. Now a man, who is concerned with some profession other than that of teaching, cannot appear as a private student. No doubt a university may think that it is in a privileged position, but in these days popular will has to be taken into consideration. I cannot understand how we can differentiate between a person going from village to village as a deputy inspector or a sub-deputy inspector and a person engaged at the desk as a clerk. If you say that those persons who are not doing teaching work are not fit persons or have not got the proper atmosphere or culture that the university demands, I beg once again to repeat the remarks of the mover, who said that this Agra University cannot be said to have that type of atmosphere as prevails in foreign universities, or in residential universities even in India. It is an examining body and the University as such has got little effect in colleges. The colleges themselves have got their own influence as colleges. So what I can say is that private students will not get that atmosphere which our colleges have got in the various parts governed by this University. But then how can you allow as private students teachers doing tuition work in schools when even those gentlemen cannot have the atmosphere of a college

I may cite an instance of a person who never got the university education and he, I suppose, is a man the like of whom none of your universities has ever produced. With your kind permission I may say that it is the late Ramanujan. He was a mere clerk and had no benefits of university education. What a bright jewel of India he was. I daresay that India has never produced in recent times a man of his calibre and he can be compared with no less a person than Newton. If he had lived up to his age he would have excelled him. He had never had the advantage of university education. He went to England with Dr. Hardy and the report that Dr. Hardy submitted to the University of Madras was that this boy had come to him as a student, but he (Dr. Hardy) had become his student. 'He was my student but now I am learning from him', said Dr. Hardy. These are the remarks that are to be found in the works of Ramanujan. I can quote the names of very many great men who never got university education. Can anybody say that there is any poet who having received university education in India can be compared to Tulsidas, who had never received university education?

Mr. Richardson: Does this University desire to produce poets?

Chaudhri Dharamvir Singh. Outside the university, there have been great people and they are people who excelled university men. It is a very great mistake to keep these men out and not to allow them to the university examinations. It has been contended that there will be great deterioration in the standards of university education. Just compare how many private students there are at present. What is the percentage of private students and the deputy inspectors sitting for University examinations? It is a microscopic minority compared with the main body of students appearing for examination from various colleges. To suppose that there would be so many candidates from out side places as from offices is wrong. I cannot suppose that the tillers of the soil or unlettered men or labourers will offer themselves for examinations. It is only clerks and other people who are engaged in some allied activity that would offer themselves for examinations and their number would be far far less than the number that we are having just at present from schools.

In this manner there would be no deterioration in the standard. There is one method which is a very faulty method and that is to argue against a proposition simply by ridiculing it. It was mentioned by one of the great learned doctors that this proposition might be compared to selling of degrees by American universities. (Dr. Ishwari Prasad. I never said that.) What was the necessity of bringing the idea of selling the University degrees? How can it come into this discussion? Did he mean that the proposal amounted to something like selling of degrees. At any rate it is not at all a detestable thing like the selling of degrees. If you did not ridicule this proposal by mentioning selling of degrees I withdraw my remarks.

Comparison with America and with other countries is always good, but the conditions in America are not the same as in our country. We are not bound to follow what is happening in America. There was a time when we took pride to follow slavishly what is happening in America. Now we care for our country. We care for conditions that are suitable for our country and in a poor country like ours it is most desirable that we should allow people to appear in examination or to make progress in education without compelling them to undergo a course of training in a university when they cannot afford it. At any rate, no harm can be done. Suppose a person qualifies himself for the B.Sc. degree, what harm is there if you allow him as a private student? Supposing he is attached to a factory and qualifies himself for the B. Sc, will you refuse to allow him for the examination? In the circumstances, I see absolutely no objection to the resolution moved by Dr. Singh, except the tendency of monopolising education, which is an old tendency of Brahmins. (Laughter.) I, therefore, respectfully submit that the resolution of Dr. Singh is a very commendable resolution and should be accepted now.

Dr. Hafiz Syed: I should like to make a few observations and I beg of you to consider them if you are inclined that way. Firstly I should like to tell you that if the proposal of Dr. R. K. Singh is to be accepted, then

I say there is no need of the Vice-Chancellor and the Senate and all these degree colleges in this province; because in that case all the students, all who are desirous of putting on a label of B. A. or M. A. degree after their names, they can educate themselves, they can study subjects themselves and there is no need of an English professor like Prof. Sidhanta? What is the use of all this huge organisation when they are so much endowed with a wonderful capacity of study and self-education that they could take up a subject and study for themselves and offer themselves for the degree examination? There is need only for a Registrar like Pandit Shyam Sundar Sharma and a Vice-Chancellor to sign the certificates. All of us present here belonging to this or that college will cease to exist. The Minister of Education in the Indore State has very emphatically and rationally told you that even in America the example of which has been quoted by Dr. Singh, every young man does not hold the B. A. or B. Sc. degree. Go anywhere in the world where there is mass education. All those countries do not hold the B. A. or M. A. degree en masse. That degree is only for those who study in colleges. Their degree is a sign and symbol of the instructions that they received from their teachers.

Secondly, I would like to tell you this. I have my ideals. I have great faith in self-education. But self-education comes at an advanced stage. If every boy and every grown-up young man were to learn of his own accord through self-education, then there will be no education at all. Up to a certain stage it is all right. Up to that stage we may study a subject deeply. But to expect every literate man to become an educated man and take a degree by putting the B. A. or the M. A. after his name is quite beyond my comprehension. I beg everyone of you to understand that here is a proposition which appeals to the heart; because it is suffused with the milk of human kindness and wide sympathy, but it does not appeal to your head. If you believe that there is some such thing as intellectual integrity, an ideal of education, a high standard of education, then in the light of your high ideal of education this is a proposition which can never be accepted.

Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao: I move for closure.

A member. The proposal before us has not been seconded or supported. The seconder thinks that it cannot affect engineering, science, medicine, etc. and so it cannot be considered, unless it is fully seconded or supported.

Vice-Chancellor.—My learned friend should have raised this point before.

A member.—I tried to do it.

Vice-Chancellor.—I am very sorry the house has been seized of the resolution.

Mr. R. K. Singh.—I am sorry the resolution is worded rather unfortunately. If I have an opportunity I would change it. My friend on the right has referred to certain American Universities. I do claim having seen a bit of America and not only that I am also proud that while studying at Harvard, due to financial difficulties I worked as library clerk for a few months and by working for two or three hours I used to earn enough to pay for my schooling at Harvard, during the period of work at least a substantial part of it. I should like to know if there are such opportunities in India. The utmost that you can expect in India is Rs. 25 for seven or eight hours work daily. In Harvard it is perfectly possible to go on part time basis and take one or two courses in each semester. You can take courses in summer and make up for the deficiency during the course of the year. Such facilities do not exist in India.

What I was advocating was exactly the same thing as was mentioned by my friend here. You will see definitely laid down: "Further the Senate recommends to the Executive Council..." It countenances the possibility of correspondence courses as is carried on in Columbia University or the possibility of having night classes. There are hundreds of people in Agra who would like to work in daytime and would be very happy to attend the university lectures if the statutes permit. I do not say that all the students irrespective of any other consideration should be permitted to appear as private candidates, what I mean to say is let the students be given an opportunity in the proper way so that the students who are qualified alone should go in for the examination, Finally, there is the talk of university culture. I would challenge any Principal of a college in the Agra University to tell me what kind of culture he has got in mind. I have been a Principal for the last 14 years and I know the culture which exists in our colleges. I still challenge the whole house to point out to me anyone to equal Dr. Tagore, whose education was conspicuous for having been out of the university. The only person who has got the Nobel Prize so far in education was a man who did not have the benefit of education in a university and you and I cannot decry the culture of people outside a university. I can quote dozens of names of people who occupy very important positions in life. My entire argument is opposed to the simple proposition that if you pass this resolution the Vice-Chancellor, the University, the colleges and university culture won't exist.

The simple question is, supposing the University makes it permissible for students to take private examinations, would you or would you not send your children to a university or a college? If you say you would not, I withdraw the motion. I have got a son. Even if you accept this resolution I will see that my boy goes to a university. This appeal is not on behalf of those who can afford university education. It is only meant for those people who are so placed that they find it impossible to go to a university. Would you like them to go without education, or to have education without the culture that you are talking of? Take an example. Take an analogy. A patient living in a village far far away from the medical colleges in Agra and Lucknow is dying. I admit that the Agra Medical College and the Lucknow Medical College are the best for his treatment. Would you like that he should die without any treatment simply because he cannot have the benefit of these medical colleges?

The resolution was put and lost.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: I want to rise to a point of order about 25 (2). The Senate hasn't got this power. Please see page 40 of the Calendar. The point of order is that it is not within the competence of the Senate to deal with a matter like this. The appointment of examiners is a matter to be disposed of by the Executive Council,

(2) Dr. R. K. Singh. This resolution is very less controversial and I have been promised support by some of my friends. It is very non-controversial. It runs thus:

"In order to review the question of the appointment of examiners, tabulators and other beneficiary offices in the Agra University, this meeting of the Senate recommends that a committee consisting of Acharya Jugul Kishore, Mr. Malkhan Singh, Dr. P. Basu, Sri Algu Rai Shastri, Principal T. D. Sully, Dr. K. C. Mehta, Miss M. N. Vergese, B. Chhail Behari Capoor and the mover be appointed so as to suggest ways and means to eliminate the undesirable practices, if any. This meeting further suggests to the Vice-Chancellor to afford suitable facilities to the members of the Committee which they deem necessary in the discharge of the duty enjoined by this resolution."

A member. Is it the idea of the mover that the appointment of examiners and tabulators should be eliminated altogether?

Vice-Chancellor. There is a point of order being raised. Let us deal with it first.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad. This resolution is intended to ask the Senate to review the question of the appointment of examiners, tabulators and other beneficiaries of the Agra University. The appointment of examiners is a matter governed by the Act and the statutes and on page 40, if you look up Section 16 of the Calendar you will find it stated. As regards the appointment of examiners and the appointment of tabulators—I do not know who these beneficiaries are—if you kindly look at page 43 of the Calendar you will find it stated: "The Executive Council shall appoint examiners and shall fix their remuneration." I have never heard of the Senate or the Court of a university discussing the appointment of examiners, or the procedure by which the examiners are appointed.

Vice-Chancellor. Don't make a speech.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad. I hope I have explained my point of order.

Vice-Chancellor. My ruling is perfectly clear. So far as Dr. Ishwari Prasad's first contention is concerned, I will uphold it. Although the Senate is the governing body of the University, the Executive Council has enormous powers. It lies within the powers of the Executive Council to appoint tabulators and examiners, checkers and other beneficiaries, as Dr. Singh has mentioned them in his resolution. Therefore, it is not within the purview of this house to encroach on the duties of the Executive Council. There is only one way out of the resolution and I think in fairness to my learned friend, Dr. Singh, I can point it out to him that if he adds the words, 'that the Senate recommends to the Executive Council to appoint such and such committee', it will be in order. But if the resolution stands as it is this house has no power to appoint a committee to review matters which are within the exclusive purview of the Executive Council. Nor can this house proceed to appoint that committee. But this house has every power to make a recommendation to the Executive Council and I will permit him to move the resolution provided he adds the words, "This house recommends to the Executive Council". But it will be purely a recommendation to the Executive Council. If they so desire they may not proceed to appoint a committee; for the Senate cannot appoint a committee.

Mr. Richardson: If I may be so bold it seems to me that the ruling does not prevent the resolution. Is it a fact that the Executive Council makes rules for the appointment of tabulators?

Vice-Chancellor: They appoint them.

Mr. Richardson: This resolution refers to the question of the appointment of examiners, tabulators and other beneficiary offices. Surely the Senate has the competence to make any suggestions with regard to revising rules under which the University activities are carried on.

Dr. L. P. Mathur: Is Mr. Richardson questioning the ruling of the Vice-Chancellor?

Mr. Richardson: I am asking for clarification.

Dr. L. P. Mathur: If Mr. Richardson is questioning the ruling which has been given by the Vice-Chancellor. ...

Vice-Chancellor: He is making a submission.

Mr. Richardson: I am asking for clarification, whether the Executive Council have power to make rules.

Vice-Chancellor. The position now is that the way in which this resolution is worded, if I may say so without any disrespect, is entirely vague. I understood, while giving my ruling, that Dr. Singh by this resolution is encroaching on what is the privilege and the function of the Executive Council which has these powers. I am not clear up to now what is the real purpose of this resolution. If Dr. Singh desires to criticise the actions of the Executive Council by the resolution, if that is so, he cannot do it. His wording is so vague that I cannot quite understand what its object is. I am also pointing out that it can only be a recommendation to the Executive Council.

Mr. Shiromani: What does the mover mean "by eliminating the said practices"?

Dr. K. C. Mehta: The mover has left out some very important words. He wants to eliminate the appointment of examiners.

Dr. R. K. Singh: I said "to eliminate undesirable practices, if any".

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: Those words are not here.

Dr. K. C. Mehta: Those words are not in the resolution before us. The mover should have taken the permission of the chair to make any addition that he wants to make in the wording of the resolution.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: This looks an extraordinary procedure. I rise to a point of order. You gave a ruling and now discussion is taking place on the ruling of the Vice-Chancellor.

Vice-Chancellor: The point is this, that I gave a ruling on a certain point raised by you. Mr. Richardson has pointed out that it is not the object of the mover to criticise the action of the Executive Council. I want to hear from the mover, since the resolution is so vague, what the real purpose is. Have I misunderstood the wording of the resolution? I, therefore, want to find out his object.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: We are to be guided by the words contained in the resolution.

Dr. L. P. Mathur: Is it open to the mover to define his object, or are we going to consider the resolution as it has been placed before us and as it has been moved? If the object of the mover is entirely different from the wordings of his resolution, then I submit that we have to go by the wordings of the resolution. Will it be permissible to make a change in the wordings of the resolution which is before the house?

Vice-Chancellor: I have given my ruling that I will permit the resolution to be moved if it says, 'This house recommends to the Executive Council. That is not open to discussion. I merely wanted to know whether he accepts my suggestion.

Dr. R. K. Singh. I am very grateful for the suggestion. My idea was that the Senate was not taking into its hands the appointment of examiners but just making suggestions to the Executive Council. I thought that as the supreme body of the University, the right to make suggestions is inherent in the Senate, but if you don't permit that, I would like this to be dropped rather than recommend it to the Executive Council for consideration.

Vice-Chancellor: You will be in order if you add these words, "This house recommends to the Executive Council". If you don't accept it, you will have to withdraw, or I shall have to disallow it

Dr. R. K. Singh: I don't want to move it.

Dr. Hafiz Syed: Has the Executive Council laid down any rules for the appointment of examiners and tabulators or not? Or is it left to the sweet will and to the complete discretion of the Executive Council to appoint anybody it likes, or are there any rules in order to guide it?

Vice-Chancellor: So far as the appointments of examiners are concerned, there are statutes. The Executive Council has to abide by these rules. So far as the appointments of tabulators are concerned, there are regulations. That is the position. I do not know what other beneficiaries there are.

Dr. Hafiz Syed: We have come across certain cases in which the committee of courses has made certain recommendations and yet the Executive Council has eliminated such persons as have been recommended by the committee of courses. There are a number of cases of distinguished people who have been eliminated and men of lesser qualifications have been brought in. As a public man I cannot ignore all these facts. Therefore, I beg of you and your worthy successor to take this question in hand and to revise the method of appointing examiners.

Vice-Chancellor: I pointed out to my friend a reasonable course, namely that if this resolution went as a recommendation a review of the method in which tabulators or examiners or beneficiaries so-called are appointed could be made. My friend could have moved that resolution as a recommendation. But he does not choose to do so. Now I have no other alternative, for I cannot allow I cannot allow the resolution to be moved as it stands. I can point out this, that so far as I have known, the Executive Council has, except in very rare cases, where the scrutiny committee has pointed out certain reasons for which a recommendation made by the Board of Studies is unacceptable, accepted it and that has been my endeavour all along. There might have been certain cases where, for other reasons an alternative choice has been made. I am sure that my successor has heard what my learned friend has said. I am sure that he would bear in mind what you have said. This is not the subject which is under discussion.

A member: I would like you to inform us about the elections. Some people are going away.

Vice-Chancellor: So far as the election of the Vice-Chancellor is concerned, I have great pleasure in announcing that Dr. Narayan Prasad Asthana has been elected by a very large majority. (Applause) So far as the Board of High School and Intermediate Education, Rajputana, Central India and Gwalior is concerned, the following persons have been elected:

Dr. L. P. Mathur, Mr. C. Mahajan, Mr. L. C. Tandon, Mr. S. P. Saxena, Mr. D. P. Bhattacharya, Principal P. D. Gupta.

Before I sit down I am sure I will be voicing the sentiments of you all in congratulating Dr. Asthana, our learned and esteemed friend, on his election to the office of the Vice-Chancellor of this University. I congratulate him on your behalf and also on my own behalf. I do not think that Dr. Asthana needs any introduction to any of you. Not only is he a prominent public man of this province and has held a high public office, but he is better known to us as a former Vice-Chancellor, esteemed and valued by all his colleagues, who brings to his office and will bring to the University, a very ripe judgment, a very balanced mind and very enlightened and progressive views on education and other public matters. I consider that the University is very fortunate in having once again his guidance of affairs and I am sure that you all wish him a very successful and happy term of office, health and strength and at the same time we can also assure him that he can rely on your support in all the work of the University. In accordance with our practice I would like that Dr. Asthana would come up to the dais and take his seat with me.

Dr. Asthana then came up and took his seat on the dais amidst cheers.

Dr. Hafiz Syed: It is my great pleasure and privilege to offer Dr. Asthana cordial felicitations on his election as the Vice-Chancellor of the Agra University. I have had the honour of knowing him for last 40 years. I have come into close touch with all his social and political activities in the intellectual centre of Allahabad and can speak with confidence that Dr. Asthana, as the outgoing Vice-Chancellor has remarked, will bring with him ripe judgment. He has crossed the usual age of three score years and ten. He is now 74 years of age. In certain quarters it is said that a gentleman of his age may be unfit for the task which he has accepted to assume. But I for one, quoting a Persian saying, would like you to believe that he is the right man in the right place.

"Hakim O Hakim O Hammam Kuhma mi baid"

I think an administrator should have ripe judgment and according to Indian ideals, the older he is the better he is for the administration; because he brings with him wisdom of age and experience

I should like to rejoice at the idea that we have found in him a gentleman who enjoys the confidence of the present ministry. We all know that only recently he laid down the office of the Advocate-General of the United Provinces Government. In the first Congress

Government as well as the present one he has had very good relations with the ministry. A couple of hours ago my learned friend, Dr. Ishwari Prasad, said that the finances of this University needed attention and help from the Government. I can assure you, gentlemen, that our Vice-Chancellor will do his best to persuade the present Congress Ministry to increase the grant of Agra University and bring better results.

Another thing which strikes me is this, that Dr. Asthana enjoys the confidence not only of the Government, but of all the communities in the U. P. He has loyal friends in every community. He is a person who believes in tolerance, lives it and is tolerant of different views. Even if he is opposed by a companion he would not misrepresent him. He has a wide and a loving heart. He is not at all clannish or communal in outlook. He has reached an advanced age and according to the Hindu ideals, I hope he still believes in them. At this advanced age an average Hindu is supposed to retire from active life. At this advanced age an ideal Hindu gentleman is supposed to enter the 4th stage of life, when he becomes a Sannyasi. The whole Varnashrama system is gone, but still the ideal remains. We expect that you will always bear in mind the fact that you are a Sannyasi now. You have been offering everything to us and not taking anything from us. That is the ideal of a Sannyasi. Therefore, we expect that you will devote all your time and consecrate all your energy to the work of the Agra University. If I were you, with all that you have attained, I would settle down in the city of my birth and give all my time to the betterment and advancement of the Agra University.

Lastly, you all know that he is a distinguished lawyer. All his life he has studied law and pleaded the cause of people who have been unfairly and unjustly treated. He has a judicious and judicial mind. I hope with all this equipment our newly elected Vice-Chancellor will try his utmost to remove all the defects that this University possesses. Lastly, I pray to God that he will give him wisdom enough to rise above sectarian and party politics, in fact try to remove all these distinctions and raise the standard of the University to a high level. Once more I offer him my respectful congratulations on his election.

Dr. Sampat Ram Chaturvedi : I wholeheartedly associate myself with what Dr. Hafiz Syed has said about the new Vice-Chancellor, whom we have elected this afternoon. Dr. Chatterjee has been the Vice-Chancellor of this University for the last six years. He has steered the ship of the University successfully. The jurisdiction of the Agra University unfortunately or fortunately extends to a great distance like the Calcutta University of old. Dr. Chatterjee has not only steered the ship of the University successfully, but he has brought to bear his personality on all the important and intricate problems of the University. A number of things he has left for his successor, the status and the conditions of service of teachers and many other allied problems. In addition to these things our new Vice-Chancellor will be confronted with two more intricate problems. One is teaching in the University in the country's languages and the second the question of the three years' degree course. I hope both problems will be successfully decided and worked up by the new Vice-Chancellor. We are very glad that in the shoes of Dr. Chatterjee we have elected an eminent lawyer and an eminent educationist. Dr. Narayan Prasad Asthana graduated in the year 1893 and I may for the satisfaction of Dr. Singh say that in the Allahabad University this privilege he had and he was allowed to appear for the M. A. degree in one year only. Dr. Asthana belongs to Agra and I congratulate him on his election. He has already acted as Vice-Chancellor for three years and I hope that his term will be known for many successful reforms in this University.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad : As one of the oldest members of this house I think it is my duty to pay my humble tribute to the retiring Vice-Chancellor. Apart from personal friendship which is in itself a compelling motive, there are considerations of a public nature which have prompted me to make a few observations. The appraisal of the work of a man occupying a high public office at the time of his retirement is a duty enjoined on colleagues and is intended to serve both as encouragement and a warning to others who follow him.

You have been at the head of this University now for six years. You did not come as a stranger to us. You had been a member of various bodies in this University. You were a member of the Executive Council and you had acquired considerable experience of academic business. You have worthily upheld the trust which was reposed in you by the Executive Council and the Senate during the last six years. Although we have passed through great vicissitudes you have steered the ship of the University like a seasoned mariner with success. Now the work of the Vice-Chancellor particularly in this University falls under three heads. He has to preside over our meetings. He has to adjust the conflicting interests between the various colleges and lastly, he has to look after the advancement of learning and the promotion of research in the University. In all these three spheres of activity these six years have been highly fruitful. You have presided over many of our meetings and I must bear testimony to your courtesy, consideration, accommodation, tolerance and to the promptness and correctness with which you have given your rulings on various occasions. You have always allowed the senior and the junior to express his point of view and however inconvenient you have always dealt with thorny or controversial questions with a flexibility of humour which has never failed you. You have always tried to hold the scales even between the colleges. The various colleges have their problems. These have come up before you from time to time and on every occasion in the Executive Council you have tried to be fair to every one of them big or small. Your attitude has been one of fairness. You have always assisted in the spread of higher education and even a small college in a neighbouring grain market has received its infant nurture at your kindly hands.

You have by your example and by your devotion tried to show that research and learning are important to a university and you have taken steps to foster them. The University has made considerable progress during these six years. I shall not traverse the ground which was covered by you in your opening speech. During your tenure of office the status of lecturers and teachers has been improved. A handsome grant has been made for the library and our reserve fund stands at the figure of Rs. 75,000, although that is not enough, as you have pointed out on several occasions. There are other things that have been done. In several respects there has been improvement. All this has been due in a large measure to your personal qualities. Your natural courtesy, your amiability of temper, your vast experience, your powers of speech. All these have made a profound impression upon those who have come into contact with you. I hope when you are away from this University you will always continue to take an abiding interest in its welfare and will try to promote its interests wherever you are.

These are days of difficulty we are living in stormy times. You have referred in your speech to the fact that discipline has been undermined in educational institutions. I shall not enter into the causes that have led to this unfortunate result. The school master today is powerless to deal with the situation. He brandishes his cane in the air with furious indignation but his conscience makes a coward of him and the native hue of resolution is sicklied over with the pale cast of thought. That is the helpless position in which teachers of the University find themselves to-day. In these trying times during these six years the University has passed through great crisis. You have dealt with the question of discipline in a tactful manner. You have never harmed the interests of the students and still you have succeeded in maintaining discipline. At the end, I shall express a wish characteristic of a Brahman: may you live long to exceed the biblical span of three score and ten and enjoy health and vigour so that you may continue to take interest in the affairs of this University !

I offer my hearty congratulations to the Vice-Chancellor who has been elected today. My association with him goes back to a very remote time. I was a student of the 5th class when he was a practising lawyer in the local courts. For years together we have taken morning walks in the Alfred Park in Allahabad exchanging notes on many different subjects. He is a learned man, he is known as a Munshi everywhere and Munshi means a learned man. Indeed he is one of the most learned lawyers of the High Court, enlightened, dignified and unassuming. Whoever may fail or falter, Dr. Asthana will never have recourse to intrigue in order to advance his position. I am sure he will continue to work in this University with supreme devotion and disinterestedness. He was Vice-Chancellor for one term. I am glad the Senate has again renewed its confidence by electing him again. Under his guidance I have no doubt the high traditions which his predecessors have established will be fully maintained.

Dr. Brijendra Swarup : I rise, sir, to associate myself with all that has been said on the floor of this house in appreciation of your services to the University. Sir, you were elected to this high office in the year 1940 when Dr. Basu vacated it. I venture to say that no better choice could have been made of a successor to your distinguished and able predecessor who had left a striking impress of his individuality upon the administration and the working of the affairs of this University. I think I am voicing the feelings of all my colleagues here in saying that you discharged your onerous and responsible duties and exercised your important and delicate functions with great tact, ability and sobriety of judgment. During your tenure of office the University has developed in various directions and your services in certain matters concerning the well-being of the University will always be remembered with feelings of admiration and gratitude. During your time two new faculties, namely, the Faculty of Medicine and the Faculty of Engineering, have been established and considerable progress has also been made towards the establishment of the Faculty of Oriental Learning. It gives us great pleasure to find from your report that this important Faculty will also come into being within a short time. In this world of imperfection, it is idle to expect that any human being or any human institution can attain perfection and so it will not be surprising if, in certain matters connected with the University, cardinal mistakes may have been committed in the eye of a section of this house. But, on the whole, I can confidently say that you have filled this high office with great distinction and dignity.

I also take this opportunity to offer my cordial and respectful congratulation to Dr. Naṛayan Prasād Asthana on his election as Vice-Chancellor of this University for the second time.

It appears to me that the mental vigour and youthfulness of Dr. Asthana is not under the domain of the time and it is a source of happiness to all his friends that even at this advanced age his capacity for hard work remains unimpaired. I have no doubt in my mind that the high traditions which were created in your time and in the time of your predecessors in office will be maintained at a high level during the tenure of office of Dr. Asthana. (Hear, hear.) I hope and trust that the University will make further progress and development during his tenure of office.

Mr. Jaideva Singh : On behalf of the registered graduates I beg to offer my most respectful congratulations on your election to the high office of Vice-Chancellor of the Agra University. You had been Vice-Chancellor before. We know your work is always characterised by sobriety of judgment, impartiality, fairness and disinterestedness and we hope that during your new tenure of office you will maintain high traditions.

Dr. L. P. Mathur . I want to add a few words to what has been said about the retiring Vice-Chancellor and the incoming Vice-Chancellor. As one of the teachers who has been associated with the working of this University in various capacities since its very inception, I have had ample opportunities of watching from close quarters the way in which the various Vice-Chancellors have tried to work this University. Dr. Chatterjee has been with us as our Vice-Chancellor for the last six years. Without taking any more time and repeating what has been said about the qualities of his head and heart, I would add only one sentence that if I know the minds of teachers in these colleges and surely I can claim to some extent such knowledge as I have moved about a good bit and I have come into close contacts so far as college teachers in these parts are concerned, I can tell you without any fear of contradiction that he has been very popular amongst the teachers. (Hear, hear.) With your permission I would like this Senate to record its sense of appreciation of the valuable services which Dr. Chatterjee has rendered to this University as Vice-Chancellor for the last six years. If you approve I will just move a resolution in these terms :

“The Sente has great pleasure in recording its high sense of appreciation of the meritorious services rendered to the Agra University by Dr. J. C. Chatterjee as Vice-Chancellor.”

Before I sit down I would, on my own behalf and on behalf of the teachers whom I represent here, offer my humble congratulations to Dr. N. P. Asthana on his election as Vice-Chancellor of the University.

Chaudhri Dharamvir Singh : I beg to offer my respectful congratulations to Dr. Asthana. I am reminded of a couplet in Gita.....

So far as I am concerned, I can only say that from my childhood I have been hearing of Dr. N. P. Asthana's name. I can lay no claims to know much about him because I was not born when Dr. Asthana was shining as a luminary. Dr. Ishwari Prasad said that he was reading in the 5th class when Dr. Asthana was practising as a lawyer in Agra. When Dr. Ishwari Prasad was a teacher in the Agra College I was a student of the 1st class. I am the juniormost person among juniors. Just as the birth of Shiri Krishna Devas and Rishis cannot know.

People in my position and those who are junior to me, practically the majority of persons in this house are so junior as never to have had personal experience and knowledge of our new Vice-Chancellor. As an old Congressman I give him my most respectful congratulations and I think that he enjoys the confidence not only of educationists but also of all those persons who have fought for the liberty of this country. One speaker has said that he enjoys the confidence of the present Ministry of U. P. I can say that all congressmen have got perfect confidence in him and I am perfectly sure that his regime will prove a complete success. I once again congratulate him.

Dr. Narayan Prasad Asthana : Mr. Vice-Chancellor and gentlemen, I thank you very much for the confidence which you have reposed in me a second time by electing me to the high office of Vice-Chancellor. However, I find that when I was elected Vice-Chancellor in 1928 things were quite different. Then I continued up to 1930 and after 16 years, although I have been in touch with the affairs of this University as a member of its Executive Council, I find that matters have gone to a very far extent so far as the work in the University is concerned. When I took over charge in 1928, there were about eight or ten colleges affiliated to this University. Now there are about 36 colleges and 18 new applications are pending. The question of the three years' degree course is coming in and it may be that every town in the United Provinces may have a degree college and I do not see why it should not have. (Hear, hear.) That will show to you the tremendous amount of work that falls upon this University. The number of examinees will increase by leaps and bounds, although it would also increase the income of the University. There is a corresponding responsibility of maintaining standards for right courses and examinations and for their extension. All these are very responsible duties and it may be that I may be able to perform them to your satisfaction.

Your Vice-Chancellor last year drew your pointed attention to certain points and he has also drawn your attention to those points in his opening speech today. It was due to his arduous labours that the idea of having a University library and having a building of its own and its usefulness was ever brought more prominently before the Executive Council and the Senate. It is no time for me to day to say what I can do. My work can only be judged when I lay down my office three years afterwards, or whenever it is possible. But I can assure you in one respect, namely, that nothing but just and fair treatment will follow. (Hear, hear.) I can assure you that so far as the University affairs are concerned, I will give my best to it and I will strive to do even-handed justice wherever it is possible.

You, sir, have been Vice-Chancellor of this University for the last six years. You have laid down certain traditions and your predecessors have also laid down certain traditions. It would be my bounden duty to follow those traditions and to enhance the reputation of this University as far as possible. On behalf of the Senators and on behalf of myself I offer my heartiest tribute to your good work. It is not the time for me to prolong my speech but simply to say that I again thank you for the conferment of this honour upon me. (Applause.)

Vice-Chancellor: I would just like to say a word of heartfelt thanks for all the kind words that you have said about me and about my poor services to this University. I particularly value the cordial way in which my old friend, Dr. Ishwari Prasad, has referred to my term of office. I am also grateful that so respected and so old a member of the Executive Council as the Dean of the Faculty of Law should have been good enough to refer in such cordial terms to my services to the University. My thanks are due to Dr. Mathur, my friend and colleague, and to you, sir, for the great kindness with which you referred to me. I can only say that whereas I have your fullest confidence, no better choice could have been made of my successor that you have made. I know that the University will enhance its reputation, that it would grow from strength to strength and be fitted under your guidance to render more efficient service and that even-handed justice will flow from your hands. In my retirement I shall look upon my term of office of six years and before that another nine years' membership of the Executive Council with the happiest memory, for I feel that these have been the most fruitful years of my professional career and I have formed here friendships and contacts which I shall greatly value. After all those who are bearing any public office are in a sense like ships that pass by at night. They come and they go. The fact still remains that while things like official contacts pass away, I hope I have made friends whose friendship will abide. It will be a source of great comfort to me and of great happiness to realise that I have left friends here in this University whom I shall ever remember. I do not know what I can do in my retirement to materially help this University, but I can assure my friends that my interest will be abiding. I shall always look back with great happiness to the years I have spent here. I thank you very much indeed. (Applause.)

26 (1) Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao moved—

Resolved that, since the prescribed academic dress of the University is neither national nor significant, men candidates attending the convocation shall be permitted to come dressed in a white dhoti or pyjama and a dark achkan with a cap or a safa for the head-dress.

I regard this University dress as utterly meaningless reminding one of the medeaval times, a clerical habit and the last vestige of slavery. It is absolutely not significant unless you want black colour to indicate the bleak and sombre future of the graduate who wears that gown. Till a national academic dress is prescribed I suggest that the dress mentioned in this resolution be permitted. We may appoint a committee to devise an academic dress suitable for our country and consistent with our traditions and culture. We might then adopt that particular dress. Women candidates I did not mention here because the more colourful their saris, the more charming and interesting function it would be.

Dr. L. P. Mathur: The resolution as it stands is unworkable. In this University year after year we have quite a large number of women graduates. Surely you don't expect them to appear in achkans and pyjamas. The mover should have suggested suitable dresses for men and women candidates.

A member: I quite appreciate the idea of making academic dress national. But I have been attending convocations for so many years and I think that particular dress gives a grace to the occasion. If we put on achkans and pyjamas the position would be different. I know there has been nationalisation of dress and so many other things I don't object to any particular dress, but there should be uniformity for all candidates coming for diplomas. There would be difficulty in different dresses for B. A.'s, M. A.'s, LL. B.'s and so on. So I think that this resolution may be referred to some committee or this may be re-considered.

Dr. N. P. Asthana took the chair.

Dr. Ishwari Prasad: This is a matter governed by statutes. I will suggest to Mr. Krishna Rao to send it to the Executive Council. The Executive Council will consider the whole question.

Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao: I am agreeable to the suggestion.

The amendment was agreed to.

(2) Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao moved—

Resolved that a note be added to Statute 21 of the University regulations under Chapter XXIX—A (Examinations—General) reading as follows:—

“This Statute shall not apply to candidates wishing to appear under provisions of Statute 12, Chapter XXX (Examinations, Faculty of Arts), and Statute 11, Chapter XXXI (Examinations,—Faculty of Science) of the University regulations.”

The purpose of this resolution is that the University permits M. A.'s and M. Sc.'s to appear in certain papers, if they wish to offer those that they had not offered when they first appeared for the examination. But there is again another statute which says that those candidates will not be allowed to appear in papers that are not regularly taught in the affiliated colleges, which means that if a particular candidate wants to appear in a supplementary paper which is not taught in an affiliated college, he has no chance for appearing for that paper even though that paper is provided for in the syllabus. There have been such cases. Supposing a college wants to start a new subject, you have to recruit new men. This resolution is to enable those who want to appear for papers provided for in the syllabus of the Faculties.

Dr. K. C. Mehta: It will be absolutely essential that a candidate shall have to intimate to the University at least one year before, because the examiner has got to be appointed for all those papers which are regularly taught in one or other of the affiliated colleges. Private candidates have to send their application forms in the month of October. So it will be impracticable for the University to cope with it not knowing which are the papers that some of the candidates are going to take.

Mr M. R. V Krishna Rao: There is very great difficulty on the part of many candidates who appear. If you wish that one year's notice be given I am absolutely agreeable to that suggestion.

Dr. K. C. Mehta: The matter may be referred to the Executive Council.

It was agreed to

(3) Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao moved—

“Resolved that it be recommended to the Faculty of Medicine that Section (1) of Statute 11, Chapter XXXIII—D (Examination Faculty of Medicine) be deleted and that provision be made for medical licentiates to appear privately for the various examinations of the M. B, B S Examination of this University”

The Bhore Committee has recommended that this country would want nearly 10000 doctors very shortly and the existing number of Medical Colleges in this country are not at all adequate. Consequently even though there is provision for the Licentiates to study for the M. B., B. S. degree it is incumbent upon them to go to college and study regularly. I am not prepared to lower the standard of degrees of Public Health and Medicine in this country. But I am sure the Faculty of Medicine can examine certain hospitals and grant permission for those Licentiates working in those hospitals that after a prescribed period of clinical work in those hospitals they may appear for the various examinations of the M B, B. S. It is only a recommendation to the Faculty of Medicine. My intention is merely to take away that mark of inferiority on the L M P.'s. Even though a licentiate may be much more clever than a graduate he is helpless. In this country people are much more impressed by degrees. For an L. M. P. they think that a fee of Rs 2 is ample and they would be ready to pay Rs. 5 to an M. B, B. S. Even though an L. M. P. may be very competent he has for the rest of his life to be content with a very small salary and low fees

Dr. G.N. Vyas: My friend forgot to mention that the Bhore Committee have dealt with this problem, but they have not recommended conferring a degree on an L.M.P.

without further course of University training. The proposal is inherently unsound and impracticable. This is hardly the time to demonstrate its inadvisability. As the proposal is to be referred to the Medical Faculty, I can have possibly no objection to getting a more considered opinion on it.

The proposal was agreed to.

(4) Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao moved—

Resolved that it be recommended to the Executive Council that the diplomas granted by all the British Indian provinces to Medical Licentiates be recognised for the purpose of admission to the M B., B. S. Examination of this University.

Dr. L. P. Mathur: This may also be referred to the Medical Faculty.

The house agreed to the proposal.

(5) Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao moved—

Resolved that the words "and Rajputana" be added after "..... in the case of bonafide residents of the United Provinces" in Statute II, Chapter XXXIII—D of the University Regulations (Examinations—Faculty of Medicine)"

Since there are certain medical colleges in Rajputana also affiliated to this University, I hope this Senate will have no objection to extend this facility to the residents of Rajputana.

A member: Why not Central India also? This may also be referred to the Medical Faculty.

It was agreed to.

(6). Mr. M. R. V. Krishna Rao moved—

Resolved that it be recommended to the Executive Council that necessary steps be taken to start a Diploma Course in Journalism under the auspices of this University.

It was agreed to.

That the following new statute be passed:—

Professors 340-25-750

Assistant Professors 200-25-650

Sir, three questions arise in this connection, which are:—1. What is the necessity and justification for introducing the proposed new statute?

2. What different classes of teachers are needed in the Colleges and what should be their appropriate designations?

3. What should be the equitable scale of their salaries?

I shall try to answer these questions one by one. Let me take up the first. You will be surprised to learn that although the Agra University has been in existence now for the last 20 years, yet there is so far neither a statute nor a regulation laying down the grades of the teachers of the affiliated colleges. All other universities, I am given to understand, have statutes or regulations governing the grades of their teachers. The only thing done by our University in this connection is that the Executive Council has passed resolutions fixing the grades of the different classes of teachers. These resolutions of the Executive Council have no binding force upon the colleges directly and as such are of an advisory nature. The last resolution of the Executive Council on this subject, passed on 28th April, 1943, fixes the following scale of salaries for the teachers in the affiliated colleges:

Professors and Heads of Departments of Post-graduate classes.	Rs. 300-20-500
---	----------------

” ” ” Degree classes 250-15-400

Lecturers	"	"	"	Rs. 200-10-300
-----------	---	---	---	----------------

Junior Lecturers	Rs. 150-10-250
------------------	----------------

The older Colleges have not adopted these scales,

Indirectly this resolution of the Executive Council is a sort of recommendation to the Board of Inspection to recommend affiliation of new colleges and of old colleges for new subjects on the condition that they give the grades laid down by the Executive Council. The recommendation of the Executive Council has not been adhered to even by the Board of Inspection in many cases nor by the Executive Council itself.

In a very recent case affiliation was given without insisting on the grades fixed by the Executive Council. There may be many other such cases, which I have not tried to find out, as only one example is enough to show that the resolution of the Executive Council is not strictly followed and is not binding even on itself.

An awkward result of this has been that in all the new colleges the scales of the salaries of the teachers are higher because affiliation was granted to them on the condition that they gave higher grades fixed by the Executive Council, while in most of the old colleges the grades are lower because they got affiliation long before the Executive Council's resolution fixing new grades was passed. Young men who were merely Intermediate class teachers formerly, on their college being raised to the degree standard, became Professors and Lecturers getting a higher grade than old and experienced teachers in the old colleges. Many of the Professors of the new colleges are the pupils of the Lecturers of the older one. This is, as you will probably all agree, very unfair to the old colleges and naturally produces great dissatisfaction among their teachers. Taking an example nearer home, the grades of the teachers are higher in the young B. R. College than in the Agra College or St. John's in spite of the fact that there are post-graduate classes in these colleges, while in the B. R. College, in a majority of cases, there are not. The Persian, Urdu, Sanskrit and Hindi Professors' grade in Agra College is Rs. 210-10-300, while in B. R. College it is 250-15-450. All this confusion and dissatisfaction among teachers is due to the fact that there is no statute fixing the grades of various classes of teachers and so the sooner this statute is passed the better.

I come now to the second question, viz. what should be the different classes of teachers in the affiliated colleges and what should be the appropriate designations for them? In answering this question I shall begin by telling you that for the last 20 years, there have been three recognised classes of teachers in these colleges: (1) Professors (2) Asst. Professors or Lecturers (3) Demonstrators, Tutors or Junior Lecturers. The resolution of the Executive Council in connection with the scales of salaries has also recognised these three classes of teachers. In theory these different classes of teachers are supposed to do different kinds of work. The Junior Lecturers are intended for work in the Intermediate classes, and demonstration work in the degree classes. The Lecturers are meant for teaching degree and post-graduate classes and the Professors for doing the same work as is done by Lecturers plus the administration of the departments, on which account they are also known as heads of departments. In practice, however, the Junior Lecturers deliver lectures to the degree and post-graduate classes also and in some cases their work with these classes is equal to or even exceeds that of the Professor. In one instance a junior Lecturer in a college is doing 9 periods with the post-graduate classes while the head of the department only 3 periods. Many other such cases can be found by perusing the University returns. So in my opinion there is no justification for having two kinds of lecturers in the colleges when they are all doing the same kind and quality of work and when their qualifications are almost the same. I admit that there may have been some justification for keeping Junior Lecturers on account of the existence of the Intermediate classes in these colleges but as is well known to you the Intermediate classes are going to be abolished soon, even from the next academic year in view of the statement of the Honourable Minister for Education. After the abolition of the Intermediate classes, the teachers in the affiliated colleges will be required to teach the University classes only and all the teachers will be engaged in doing the same type and quality of work both theoretically and practically. So it is high time in my opinion, with which I suppose you will all agree, that all the teachers were placed in the same cadre. But as one man in each department will be required to manage and supervise the work of the rest and is supposed to do more work in the highest class, his cadre may be separated from that of the other teachers. In fact my experience during these long years has been that a major part of the administration of the department is entrusted to the juniors by the heads of departments. But a separate designation and higher status may be given to them as theoretically they are supposed to do administration work and in any case the responsibility is theirs. It is on this account that they may be called Professors and heads of departments while other teachers should be designated Assistant Professors as this term is more dignified and appropriate. In Colleges all the teachers, whether Professors or Lecturers, are lecturers in the sense that they deliver lectures. So this is the functional name of all the teachers in the colleges and as such it should not be the designation of the Assistant Professors.

Sir, my reply to the third question, i. e. what should be the equitable scale of salaries for the different classes of teachers, is contained in the statute itself, that is to say, the Professors' grade should be Rs. 300-25-750 and that of the Assistant Professors Rs. 200-25-650.

In the first instance the scale of salaries given to various classes of teachers in the affiliated colleges is very low as compared with the scales existing in the other universities. While the maximum of the Professors' and lecturers' grades in the other universities is Rs. 1,000/- and 400/- or 500/-, the corresponding maximum grade in the affiliated colleges of the Agra University is 400-500 and 200-300. In other words it is practically half of or even less than what it is in the other Universities. I do not understand the reason which prompted the Executive Council of this University to fix such low scales. Was it the intention to give a lower type of education to the students reading in the colleges under this University? When the teachers, in both, are teaching the same classes, when the same qualifications are required for their appointment, there was no earthly reason to give lower scales of salaries to the teachers of the colleges affiliated to this University.

One result of this policy has been that the best people are not attracted by these colleges and if they unfortunately come to them, as they cannot help it sometimes, they remain discontented,—a fact, which ultimately breeds inefficiency. This is not a healthy state of affairs and certainly not fair to the students who pay dearly the same fees as in the other universities. For the same price they do not get the same quality of service at the two places.

This policy of giving an indifferent type of education by low paid and discontented teachers was good from the point of view of the bureaucratic Government as their intention in giving college education was to manufacture clerks and low paid officers. Now that we are on the threshold of freedom and popular governments are at the helm of affairs, we require educated people of a different stamp—people really educated, who should make a mark in international spheres, and who will bring a name and fame to the country. Such education requires well paid and contented teachers.

Moreover, Gentlemen, these grades were fixed by the Executive Council early in 1943. The proposal must have started a year earlier, that is to say, in 1942. But Gentlemen, 1946 is not 1942. In 1942 the prices had just started on their upward trend. During the last four or five years there has taken place an enormous rise in the general level of prices. The prices of goods consumed by the teachers are four times higher than what they were before. Consequently there has taken place a corresponding rise in the cost of living. On this basis the salaries of the teachers should be four times of what they were before. But considering that teaching is not a trade but a profession, rather a mission I do not want to pitch the demand very high, or in proportion to the rise in the cost of living. Sir, we should be satisfied if we get a minimum wage appropriate for teachers in the colleges. Our salaries must be adequate to maintain the dignity of the profession, to have a decent standard of living, to have bare amenities and facilities of life essential for a brain worker. Gentlemen, the condition of the teachers at the present time is very pitiable indeed. Their standard of living has gone down a great deal. Financial worries weigh upon their minds. So it is no wonder that most of the teachers find their energies prematurely declining, their enthusiasm waning, and their joy of life vanishing. Such mental and physical condition as this is bound sooner or later to affect our efficiency of work which in spite of the odds against us we have been trying to maintain at the highest level possible. I appeal, therefore, that my proposal should be incorporated in the University statutes at an early date.

The Vice-Chancellor, Dr. J. C. Chatterjee took the chair.

Vice-Chancellor: A statute cannot be passed here. The only course is that this statute be recommended to the Executive Council.

The mover agreed to the suggestion.

28. Dr. Jai Pal Singh moved:—

- (1) Resolved that on page 179 of the University Calendar 1945-46, paragraph (c) be deleted.
- (2) Resolved that in paragraph (d) the following words be inserted after the words “.....three years standing” and before “who”:—

“M.A. or M.Sc. of one year standing and Doctor”.

My resolution is very very innocent. I may just remind the house that this came into existence because the Agra University is a child of Allahabad University and the graduates of Allahabad University were given place among the registered graduates at that time. Since we have lived a long life of 20 years this clause is absolutely redundant.

It was resolved that the proposals be referred to the Executive Council.

Vice-Chancellor: I am replying to a letter which I have received from Mr. G. N. Shiropani, because he is a member of the Senate. The reasons why I was forced to postpone the Convocation are briefly these. We had in April 1946 long before the date of the Convocation decided that as the number of graduates in the Agra University is about 3,600 and was unwieldy and in the absence of an adequate Convocation Hall, it was not possible to hold a Convocation on that large scale and maintain the dignity and decorum demanded on such a scale, we might follow the example of the Punjab and certain other affiliating universities and only have persons taking the Doctorate and the Master's degrees present at the Convocation here and authorise all colleges to hold their own Convocations separately. I want to make it quite clear to you, gentlemen, that it was not in any sense an act of resentment or of retaliation for the unfortunate incident which happened at the last Convocation. In fact the speaker at the last Convocation, Sir Maurice Gwyer, wrote to us that he did not want any serious view be taken of what he considered the exuberance of spirit on the part of some students. We did not, therefore, in any sense mean it as any act of retaliation. But we felt that it was the best way of conducting Convocations in a university-like this. We also had in view the fact that persons coming from distant places like Indore or Bikaner had to meet a great deal of expenditure and apart from that they found the greatest difficulty in finding accommodation in a crowded city like Agra and we felt that they would be better served if they had their degrees conferred on them in separate Convocations in their own colleges. That is the practice adopted by more than one university of the affiliating type. That is the decision which I would like to bring to your notice. That decision was taken so early as April.

It is only a short while ago that I invited the Minister of Education to deliver the Convocation address. I thought it would be better if we had a public man of his eminence. He kindly agreed. I changed the date of the Convocation so that it may not conflict with the meetings of the National Congress in Meerut. It appeared that certain unhappy developments took place in Agra. As a result the Convocation Committee was formed of the local Principals and certain other local members of the Executive Council and they reported to me that within the last month a section of students had taken up a very unfortunate attitude. They wanted to force us to hold a Convocation where degrees would be conferred on all graduates and not merely the Master's degrees and the Doctorate. I was prepared to concede that all persons who took the Bachelor's degrees should be admitted to the Convocation and I had requested certain Principals here to lend their hall. I was even prepared to erect a Shamiana large enough so that they might be able to hear the Hon'ble Minister's address. But the students through handbills and posters and leaflets kept on saying that they would not accept that. They demanded that the degrees of Bachelors should be conferred here. The Principals of colleges tried to reason with students, but they threatened to hold very unfortunate demonstrations at the time of the Convocation.

The Convocation was so near that even if the Executive Council decided to reverse the old decision which would have been unfortunate because discipline to some extent has to be maintained, it would have been impracticable for it would have been impossible to inform all the colleges outside that the Bachelor's degrees would be conferred here. If we had decided that only the Agra students should receive their degrees here, it would have been most unjustifiable discrimination. It is not fair to confer degrees on Agra students and not on students of the other colleges. At all events, the local committee here were most emphatic that to hold this Convocation at this time might lead to ugly demonstrations and we did not wish to expose our honoured speaker whom we invited and other guests to any kind of demonstrations which had impaired the dignity of the University last year and this there was no other alternative but to postpone the Convocation. But anyway I did not do so without first writing to the Hon'ble Education Minister and giving him the full facts of the case. I not only wrote to him and wired to him, but I deputed at the request of the committee the Registrar to go and wait on the Hon'ble Minister and to ascertain his views and wishes. The Registrar met him and came back and reported that the Minister was in entire agreement with the views of the local Convocation Committee, that it was his own wish that under the circumstances the Convocation may be postponed for a short time. The matter was reported to the Executive Council yesterday who unanimously endorsed that opinion and they have authorised the Vice-Chancellor to fix a date for the Convocation in consultation with the Hon'ble Minister in order to suit his convenience. I have no doubt that my successor will now take the necessary action.

I can assure you that we have never desired to take any retaliatory measures. Further, we were unanimously advised that in the present disturbed state of affairs, particularly having regard to the communal trouble, we should not provide any opportunity for irresponsible people to create trouble. A few people can create an unfortunate situation and that is the reason why the Convocation has been postponed.

Mr. G. M. Shironani: So many students came to me and they just informed me that the Convocation was postponed, because we made a demonstration last year. I thought that this was not the case and informed them accordingly. I had a talk with Mr Mathur that if the students other than those who are going to get degrees are allowed to sit outside the compound and they hear the Minister's speech they would be satisfied. At this particular moment it was right on your part to postpone the Convocation, because the situation in the city is also not satisfactory. I shall try to use my position and influence to see that there is no trouble in future.

Vice-Chancellor: In accordance with parliamentary practice I lay answers to the questions of Mr. Krishna Rao on the table. I now adjourn the house as our business is over.

The meeting was then adjourned at 4-47 p. m.

J. C. CHATTERJEE, SHYAM SUNDAR SHARMA,
